Eisenhower Quits Job As Commander In Europe June 1

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today received clearance to give up his European command June 1. This frees him to come home well in advance of the Republican national convention and campaign for the GOP Presidential nomination.

The Republicans meet in Chicago July 7.

The White House announced Eisenhower's release, effective June 1, by making public an exchange of letters between him and Secretary of Defense Lovett.

Eisenhower's letter, dated April 2, asked that Lovett "initiate appropriate action" for his release approximately June 1. Lovett's letter said that had been done.

In releasing these letters, Presidential Secretary Joseph Short told reporters there also had been an exchange of letters between President Truman and Eisenhower. He said the President's letter was in long-hand and added:

"Both letters were personal and very cordial and will not be made public."

Successor Not Named

Short had no news as to Eisenhower's successor in the Defense Command. He said there would be no announcement about that today.

Eisenhower formally assumed the command in Euripe on April 2, 1951—so his letter was dated exactly a year from the time he took on the task of building a defense wall against possible Communist aggression.

He told Lovett:

"I consider that the specific purposes for which I was recalled have been largely accomplished."

Eisenhower, World War II leader and a five-star general, was on inactive duty and president of Columbia University when Truman asked him to take the European assignment.

While June 1 is the effective

Gov. Stevenson Maps His Plans

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(AP)—Governor Adlai E. Stevenson, mentioned prominently as a Democratic presidential possibility, is to clarify his political plans next week.

Stevenson repeatedly has said he is a candidate for "governor of Illinois and that is all," and that he has no ambitions nationally. He was nominated without opposition for his second four-year term in Tuesday's Illinois primary. He also received write-in votes for president.

When the governor was asked directly on a television program 10 days ago, "will you say that you will not accept the Democratic (presidential) nomination" he replied: "I will not say that."

Stevenson's possibility as a presidential candidate first was mentioned last fall but the talk grew into wider speculation several weeks ago after he had visited President Truman. There have been persistent reports that Mr. Truman had asked Stevenson to become a candidate.

William I. Flanagan, Stevenson's press secretary, said the governor's formal statement next week apparently will end speculation about his future political plans.

Dope Merchant Found Guilty At Detroit

DETROIT—(AP)—Giuseppe Catalonotte, an alleged large scale dope merchant here, was found guilty yesterday of violating federal narcotics laws.

Catalonotte, 52, faces a possible prison sentence of 15 years.

He was convicted by a federal court jury of ten women and two men. The jury returned its verdict after an hour of deliberation.

Attorneys for Catalonotte, reputed to be the "old man" named before the Kefauver committee as a national narcotics ringleader, said they were undecided on whether to appeal the verdict.

Catalonotte was charged with the purchase and possension of a tenth of a grain of heroin.

Flood Refugees Eat Venison In Pierre

PIERRE, S. D.—(AP)—Flood refugees being fed in Pierre feasted on venison last night.

Two of 17 deer attempting to swim from a flooded island suffered broken legs by huge ice cakes in the stream and had to be destroyed. Chief game warden Virgil Johnson ordered the meat turned over to the Red Cross.

Newsmen Pick Ike As Winner In New Jersey

By PETER MacDONALD

NEWARK, N. J. — (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will win New Jersey's preferential primary Tuesday—in the opinion of New Jersey newspapers—but Sen. Robert A. Taft, who tried to withdraw from the election, nevertheless will poll a sizeable vote.

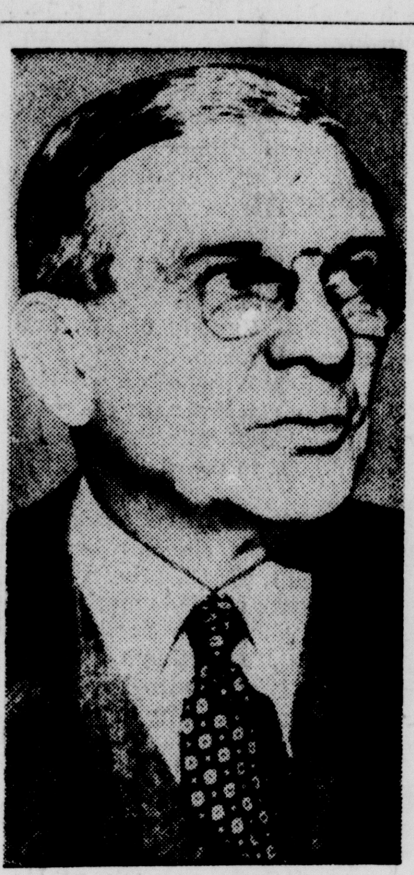
Harold E. Stassen, third entrant on the Republican Presidential popularity ballot, will trail badly, believe the editors canvassed by the Associated Press.

In a nutshell, the newspaper reports, based on soundings among voters in their own counties, forecast.

Eisenhower will receive about 56 per cent of the vote; Taft, whose name remains on the ballot despite his attempted withdrawal, will get about 34 per cent; Stassen, nine per cent, and write-ins for Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Gov. Earl Warren of California, and others, one per cent.

These figures are based on percentage estimates made by newspaper editors and political writers in 17 of New Jersey's 21 counties. Newspapers in the four counties which did not provide percentages all predicted an Eisenhower win in their areas.

The survey covered 21 daily and seven weekly newspapers which circulate in all sections of the state.



SPEAKS FOR INDUSTRY — President Truman's seizure of the steel industry was the result of a corrupt political deal with the CIO, according to Clarence B. Randall, (above) president of Inland Steel Co. Randall's charges, heard over a nationwide radio and TV hookup, were branded as lies and "an insult to President and me" by Philip Murray, head of the CIO. (NEA Telephoto)

Kansas Sticks To Eisenhower

TOPEKA, Kas. — (AP) — The Eisenhower and Taft forces in Kansas wound up their fight for the state's 22 national Republican convention delegates with this score:

Yesterday the state Republican convention elected ten delegates-at-large, all favorable to the General. Previously district conventions had elected the other 12 delegates, giving ten to Eisenhower and two to Taft.

Kansas is Eisenhower's home state.

Nine of the delegates-at-large were elected by acclamation. Eisenhower supporters, in firm control of the state convention, beat down a sixth district recommendation of a Taft man as the tenth delegate-at-large.

After a wordy battle, an Eisenhower supporter was elected by a 4 to 1 margin of the 1,013 convention delegates.

Weary Lansing Lawgivers Near Budget Balance

By JACK I. GREEN

LANSING — (AP) — Michigan's Legislature, rolling up to the end of its 93-day 1952 session sometime today, appeared awfully close to balancing next year's budget, but was making no inroads on an accumulated state deficit of $58,000,000.

Many of the vital decisions remain to be made before the lawmakers wind up their first annual off-year session in history. They were to recess from 11:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Tre Ore services if their work is not done by then and will stop the clock at midnight if unfinished.

New Revenues Provided

On the basis of decisions reached by weary House-Senate conference committees late last night, the general fund budget was in the neighborhood of $330,500,000.

This falls $29,000,000 short of expected revenues, but the Legislature has passed or has in the hopper about $29,000,000 in additional revenue bills. Governor Williams has neither signed nor vetoed any of them yet.

Legislative leaders, eyeing the steadily dropping cash balance in the treasury, debated whether to adjourn today or order a long recess so that the governor could not summon them back into special session before election day. In a special session the governor can dictate the sujects for consideration.

Kefauver Crowd Slim In Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)— Sen. Estes Kefauver heads East today in his campaign for the Democratic nomination as President, after getting an Oregon reception of somewhat less fervor than expected.

A banquet arranged for his first visit to Oregon drew 67 persons. More had been expected at the $2.50 affair. In fact Kefauver declined to sit at the long speaker's table because of the sparse crowd. He moved to a smaller table, and the long speaker's table remained empty.

At night he made his first speech in the state, and drew 700 to an auditorium that can hold 1,100.

Kefauver supporters said they were not entirely disappointed, since he was making only a one-day stopover here, mostly to set up arrangements for a longer campaign visit just before the Oregon primary May 16.

In that primary he will face Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois on the Democratic ballot. Associate Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. supreme court also has been entered, but he has protested strongly and has bought space in the state-printed voters' pamphlet to ask Democrats not to vote for him.

Gang Rounded Up

DETROIT—(AP) — Police said they have rounded up a gang of 10 teenagers who savagely attacked a former schoolmate with metal belt buckles. Kenneth Adams, 16, victim of the beating, suffered three broken teeth, multiple cuts of the mouth and a cheek gash that required nine stitches. Adams said he knew of no reason for the assault.

Machinist Fixes Boy In Chicago Hospital

CHICAGO —(AP)— The chief machinist at the Illinois Masonic hospital—not a physician—was called to attend a young patient yesterday.

Freddie Nobis, 7, was taken to the hospital with a metal gear casting caught on his fingers. Chief machinist Edward W. Thomas, with assistance from a nurse, used a hacksaw to remove the casting. Freddie had picked up the casting in his home and inserted his fingers in an opening. He went home without a need for medical attention.

House May Borrow Morris Quiz Sheet To Hunt Corruption

By HARRY P. SNYDER

WASHINGTON — (AP) — House investigators today considered borrowing Newbold Morris's questionnaire technique in their probe of the Justice Department.

Chairman Chelf (D-Ky.) of a judiciary subcommittee told newsmen some thought would be given to adopting the questionnaire devised by the ex-corruption hunter.

No New Leads

It was this questionnaire—through which Morris proposed to find out all about government officials' outside income, their gambling activities if any, and how many fur coats their families had acquired—that helped get him fired with dazzling suddenness last week.

While Morris failed to furnish any "leads" for the House probers, Chelf and Rep. Keating (R-N. Y.) said they had learned something from his story of events leading up to his break with J. Howard McGrath, who was the attorney general until he fired Morris.

President Truman, whom Morris has pictured as the only top government official in sympathy with his corruption investigation, severed McGrath from the public payroll within four hours of the Morris bouncing. The President, however, has shown no inclination to get Morris's job back for him.

Cabinet Revolt Avoided

Asked in a radio interview last night if "the president threw you overboard to escape a possible revolt in his own cabinet," Morris replied:

"I think that is probably a fair supposition."

He said that when the President announced on March 29 he would not seek re-election "that meant the end of Presidential discipline on which I banked. That was my one weapon—the Presidential power of disciplining people who would not comply with my requests for documents and information."

Michigan Bell Agreement Sets Peace Pattern

DETROIT—(AP)—Michigan's strike of 18,000 telephone workers was settled today, apparently opening the way to peace nationally.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company and the CIO Communications Workers of America jointly announced the settlement.

Full details were not revealed immediately, but the basis for agreement was reported by the union as a 12.7 cents hourly wage increase.

Over 260,000 Idle

Any settlement in Michigan, key state in negotiations, was expected to form the pattern for agreements generally.

A union spokesman said the company's last general increase offer $4 to $7 a week would stand, with adjustments.

Upwards of 260,000 telephone workers across the nation have been idled in the strike. The majority of these are non-strikers who stayed off the job in respect of strikers' picket lines. Bell System employes have been on strike since Monday in Michigan, New Jersey, northern California and Ohio in the wage dispute. At the same time union's members have been on strike against Western Electric Company in 43 states.

Operators Back Saturday

Western Electric is a manufacturing subsidiary of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, which also controls the Bell Telephone System.

Michigan's striking switchboard operators and maintenance men are expected to return to work "no later than tomorrow," a union spokesman said. But he added if Western Electric strikers still were picketing exchanges their lines would be respected.

An unconfirmed rumor sped around negotiation headquarters that the Western Electric strike was on the verge of settlement in New York negotiations on the basis of the CWA-Michigan Bell agreement.

Michigan telephone wages now range between $33 and $90 a week, the basic average hourly wage being $1.43.

Issues Ironed Out

The settlement was announced jointly by Walter Schaar, Michigan-Ohio district director for the union, and Homer D. Swander, chairman of Michigan Bell's negotiating committee.

Schaar said the two sides had agreed on "basic issues," including the inter-city wage differentials.

Complete details remained to be worked out, it was said, as the

State Police Arrest Brothers In Saginaw Mutuels Betting Ring

DETROIT—(AP)—Two brothers, arrested in raids by State Police, today faced charges that information they provided kept a Saginaw mutuels ring in operation.

Edward J. Bueker, 47, of Detroit, and his brother, Charles H., 59, of Redford township, were being transferred to Saginaw today to face charges of conspiring to violate state anti-gambling laws.

The two were arrested last night by the State Police rackets squad. Sgt. Fred David said the arrests resulted from raids in Saginaw last Friday in which 17 persons were charged with gambling violations.

At that time an intercity system of communicating mutuels numbers was revealed as operating between Detroit and Saginaw. Police said the Buekers admitted it was their service which telephoned winning mutuel numbers daily between the two cities.

U. S. Jets Can't Find Red Planes, So They Wreck Supply Train

SEOUL—(AP)—American Sabre jets, on the prowl for Red jets, couldn't find any this morning so they shot up a Communist supply train with their machine guns.

The Fifth Air Force said 34 Sabres spotted a long train shortly after it crossed over from the Manchurian border. The airmen swept down and worked the train over. They reported they destroyed the locomotive and crippled 17 box cars.

Worst Missouri Flood Since 1881 Sweeping Down Big Muddy River

PIERRE, S. D.— (AP) —History's greatest Missouri River flood swept toward downstream communities today after dropping here slightly overnight from its record crest of just over 25 feet.

Army engineers gauges showed a 24.75 foot reading at midnight (CST). But with upriver tributaries still pouring in huge quantities of water, they refused to say the crest has passed. Flood stage here is 15 feet.

Town Engulfed

The Big Muddy, normally 1,000 feet wide, spread over five miles to engulf all but three blocks of nearby Fort Pierre and 30 blocks of this South Dakota capital.

Charles Fales, an alert 85 year old Fort Pierre resident, was asked if anyone had ever seen more water in the Missouri.

"Only Noah," he replied.

Fales was a witness to the 1881 flood, called the worst until now.

The Red Cross declared 12 Nebraska and Iowa counties disaster areas as the unrelenting torrent swirled southward. In South Dakota, 13 counties fought the raging river and its tributaries. Floods also were reported in North Da-

Prefab Bunkers Built In Korea

WITH U. S. THIRD DIVISION, Korea — (AP)—Even in the Korean mud, home is what you make it.

And the U. S. Seventh Infantry regiment has come up with something new in battle line housing—a prefabricated bunker.

Bunkers are reinforced holes in the ground which give the foot soldiers a maximum of cover—in other words a roof over their heads.

The Seventh's assembly line is just behind the front. Two platoons cut the lumber to specifications set by the forward soldiers.

The bunker kits are delivered complete. The assembly line even sends along a representative to explain how its put together.

All the infantrymen have to do is have a proper size hole dug.

The frontline soldiers usually cut their own machinegun slots to fit their particular field of fire. Other openings are made beforehand.

Puppy Gets Her Tail Caught In Ironer

DETROIT—(AP)—Queenie is a puppy whose tail had a happy ending.

Policemen Jack Minor and Robert Leskie answered a "dog in trouble" call yesterday to find Queenie, a six-month-old shepherd, with her tail caught in an automatic ironer.

Neither officer knew how to reverse the gear mechanism that gripped the howling Queenie. And every time Queenie wailed, so did her family—Joanne Navarre, 12, Richard 10, Carolyn 9, and Barbara 7.

Amidst the din of dog yelping and children weeping, the officers carefully dismantled the ironer. They got Queenie free. Than they reassembled the machine.

Rolls Into River

WELLSBURG, W. Va.—(AP)—A three year old boy drowned when the family car he was sitting in rolled down a wharf and into the Ohio River. Police said Duther R. Williams told of leaving his son Russell in the parked car while he went on an errand yesterday.

Great Atomic Plant Planned In Ohio Valley

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission announced today it is planning construction of a new, billion dollar plant. It said its search for a suitable site is now concentrated in the Ohio Valley.

This was the first official statement from the commission on the proposed plant, reports of which have been circulating in Kentucky, Ohio, and West Virginia.

AEC general manager M. W. Boyer said in a statement the commission is surveying prospective locations for a site of 5,000 or 6,000 acres for a new gaseous diffusion plant "which is included in the AEC expansion program now being drafted for submission to Congress." It would employ 4,000 to 5,000 operating workers.

Boyer stressed that the commission has not yet decided on a site.

He said studies are being pinpointed in the Ohio River Valley primarily because of the "availability of potential power at reasonable cost in quantities needed for construction and operation of a gaseous diffusion plant and the availability of water."

Woman, 50, Burns Home; Kills Dad

AUBURN, Calif.—(AP)—A 50-year-old woman told Sheriff Charles Ward tonight she set her home afire, then shot her 78-year-old father to death—because she did not want to give up their ranch home.

Etta Dickinson told the sheriff she had meant to take her own life too but had found it "hard to do."

The 326-acre cattle ranch had been condemned by the government as it is to be flooded by Folsom Dam, currently under construction on the American river. Dickinson had lived on the ranch 59 years.

Her story, as related by the sheriff:

She got up, cooked her father's breakfast while he milked the cow and, as he ate, she set kerosene fires in her bedroom and in the living room.

She fired the shot gun from behind her father, hitting him below the right ear. She went out on a porch, re-loaded the gun but found it impossible to kill herself as she had planned.

Instead she let out the chickens, the cow and the calf and went into the barn. Again she couldn't shoot herself.

Then she went into the woods and stayed all day, watching the fire and the ensuing search in the ruins for her body.

Government May Make Wage Deal With Steel Union

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Floundering negotiations for a settlement of the steel labor dispute led to reports today that the administration may go ahead and make its own wage deal with CIO President Philip Murray.

Any such move is certain to provoke another quick court attack from the steel industry.

Legal Moves Lost

At the moment the industry is under government operation, there is no steel strike, the steel companies are managing their own plants and finances under nominal federal rule, and the vital defense metal is flowing.

How long this "status quo" will remain is anyone's guess.

The steel industry already has lost two attempts for fast court review of the legality of President Truman's seizure orders and attorneys are rushing new moves. But for the moment it seemed the government was firmly in control.

Bear By The Tail

It was plain, however, that the Truman administration recognized it had a bear by the tail and wanted to let loose as soon as possible.

This could only be accomplished by a settlement of the basic differences between the industry and Murray, head of the Steelworkers Union.

Murray stuck steadfastly to the Wage Stabilization Board-suggested settlement terms of 17½ cents an hour increases in pay, plus the union shop and other concessions.

Some steel companies reportedly were willing to grant some form of union shop, or compulsory union membership arrangement, but one or two firms balked at this.

Night Worker Killed By Detroit Robber

DETROIT—(AP)—The body of a 51-year-old auto worker and bar owner, the skull crushed, was found by his son on the back porch of their home early today.

Police said Bernardo Deluca apparently was the victim of a brutal robbery attempt as he left for work on the midnight shift at the Ford Motor Co. Rouge plant.

Deluca's son, Dino, 20, discovered the body at 3:15 a. m. as he accompanied his mother, Josephine, 43, home from the family cafe-bar.

It was believed Deluca had been waylaid in the alley at the rear of his house and struck without warning from behind. His head was crushed by four powerful blows.

Frankfort-Menominee Ferry Study Continues

LANSING — (AP)—The House today approved the continuance of a special study committee on establishing state ferry service between Frankfort and Menominee to serve the western Upper Peninsula.

The continuance was asked by Chairman James Goulette (R-Iron Mountain) who said more study of the possible traffic on the ferry line was needed.

Arbor Day April 25

LANSING —(AP)— Arbor Day was proclaimed for April 25 in Michigan by Governor Williams today. He urged that the day "be observed with appropriate programs by our schools, churches, clubs, civic groups, garden clubs and other organizations."

Delta Tourist Guide Is Ready

The 1952 edition of the Delta County Tourist Guide, a 40-page four-color booklet with many illustrations, is ready for distribution, it was announced today by Clarence Moreau, president of the Delta County Tourist Council.

Copies of the fully illustrated edition have already been mailed to distribution centers in Lower Michigan and outside the state in advance of the tourist season, while local distribution is scheduled for next week, Moreau reported. A total 15,000 copies were printed.

Maps, suggested tours, good fishing places, tourist and resort accommodations are listed in the Guide. Full-page picture and story layouts describe the recreational facilities in the several areas of the county.

One of the features of the Guide for 1952 are four suggested tour routes: Blue Water tour, Scenic Wildlife tour, Historic Peninsula Point tour, and the Champion Potato Growers route.

Besides the summer fishing, swimming and boating suggested to visitors, there is additional information on the county's good hunting country. Escanaba, Gladstone and other communities have special sections of interest to tourists and industries of the country are described for the benefit of visitors.

Trenary

Easter Services

TRENARY — Members of the Methodist Church will attend Easter Sunday services at 7 a. m. Immediately following a pot luck breakfast will be served in the church parlors. This is an annual affair and a large attendance is assured. Baptismal services also will be held as in the past.

Home Extension Meeting

The Trenary officers of the Home Extension Club attended a county meeting at the Chatham Experimental Station Wednesday afternoon to select lessons for the coming year. Those attending were Mrs. Agnes Raab, Mrs. Helen Webber, and Mrs. Ida Kallio. The Chatham group has invited two leaders from the Trenary Club to attend a meeting on sewing machine attachments and their uses, which will be held Tuesday, April 21. The Trenary group has been appointed to enter the Home Extension exhibit at the U. P. State Fair in Escanaba this year, from Alger county. After the meeting refreshments were served.

Class Field Trip

The civil government class of Trenary High School motored to Munising Thursday to attend a government meeting at the Mather High School. The Eben students also participated. All students were served dinner in the parlors of the Presbyterian Church. George Hager, Walter J. McClintock and Mrs. Lillian Majhannu accompanied the students.

Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Elmore and children Judy, Freddie, and Tommy of Cheboygan, Mich., are spending the Easter holidays with Mrs. Elmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knaus and daughter, Jonelle, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cauchon and daughter, Gay, have left for Sheppard, Mich., to spend the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cauchon.

The 4-H Club will hold their regular meeting Tuesday, April 15, at the High School, with Elaine Hendrickson, Stella Ford and Jonelle Knaus, on the lunch committee.

Network Highlights

NEW YORK—(AP)—If the pattern of summer replacements for the radio networks already being set up is generally followed, the 1952 batch of fill-in programs will run about one-third music and two-thirds drama with half the drama in the who-dun-it category.

The best example of what's in prospect is evidenced by the way NBC is arranging things to replace Tallulah Bankhead's big show for a long summer layoff. Three half-hour programs will fill the 90-minute segment starting April 27, with the beginning of daylight saving time.

The music part will be taken care of by Meredith Willson, Tallulah's director, who will stay on the air. This will be an addition to his recently introduced daily afternoon series and his Wednesday night session.

Dramas will take up the rest of the time. The Who-Dun-It half is titled "The Case." The other half will be filled by a revival of the summer theater, a series of straight dramas which won considerable acclaim last season.

For Tonight (Friday):

NBC—8, Roy Rogers Story "Teenager;" 8:30, Martin and Lewis; 9, Mario Lanza Songs; 9:30, Short Story; 10, Night Beat Mystery; 11:30, Good Friday Concert.

Ford Gives $22,311,736 To Education And Peace

NEW YORK— (AP) —The Ford Foundation last night announced it had appropriated $22,311,736 in 1951 for projects intended to advance education and peace.

Henry Ford II, foundation board chairman, said the foundation "hoped to play a modest role in seeking ways to help prevent war and, more positively, to achieve peace."

"It is apparent that the prime threat to human welfare today is the danger of war and the attendant sense of strain throughout the world," Ford said in the foundation's annual report.

More than $10,000,000 in grants were allocated by the foundation to educational purposes, including scholarships, during 1951.

Other foundation-supported programs ranged from disarmament studies to agriculture extension work abroad and from research into human behavior to raising the competence of teachers.

Ford said the board of trustees had approved the request of Paul G. Hoffman to leave his post as president of the foundation to direct the nomination campaign of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Hoffman was granted a leave of absence without pay from March 14, 1952 to July 12, 1952.

The board said Ford would serve as acting president and chief executive during Hoffman's absence.

Soviets Ignore UN Commission

GENEVA— (AP) —A U. N. commission today gave Russia until April 27 to let the commission into Germany's Soviet zone to study the possibility of free elections throughout Germany.

The commission set the deadline in a fourth letter requesting admission from Gen. V. I. Chuikov, Soviet zone commander. He failed to answer the other three.

Unless he lets the group in by the deadline, they said they would wind up their work and report failure to the U. N. The commission already has visited West Germany.

A Russian note published last night to Britain, France and the United States emphasized the U. N. investigators have almost no chance of a favorable reply. The Russians said they want elections to unify Germany—but stuck to their stand they should be run by the Big Four, not the U. N.

Grand Marais

Home Extension Club

GRAND MARAIS — The Home Art Extension Club met Monday at the school to plan the program for 1953. Plans were made for the fund raising project for the purchasing of band uniforms. The first of the benefits will be held Saturday, April 19, in the high school auditorium. Hostesses were Mrs. Albert LaCombe and Mrs. William LaCombe. Lunch was served.

First Aid Classes

Due to the large number attending the First Aid class, Mrs. William Klasner, R. N., has announced she will hold two classes. They will be held every Monday afternoon at 1:30 and Monday evening at 7:30.

Every person completing the nine week course, a total of 18 hours plus four hours of Civil Defense, and successfully passing the examination will receive a First Aid Standard course certificate. The classes are being held at the school. All women are invited to attend.

Pays For His Sewer But Never Had One

CHILDRESS, Tex.—(AP)— For 13 years, since June of 1939, W. I. Hughes has paid a monthly sewage charge to the city of Childress.

Last week he called a plumber to clean out a clogged sewer line.

To his surprise the plumber reported the Hughes home was serviced by a septic tank and had never been on the city sewer line.

This week the City Council voted to reimburse Hughes $162 for overcharge, and had the plumber connect the Hughes home with the sewage system.

Plan Meeting Of Philatelists

Harry L. Lindquist of New York City, a native of the Upper Peninsula and publisher of "Stamps" magazine, will be the speaker at the 17th annual banquet of the Escanaba Philatelic Society on April 21. The banquet will be held in First Methodist Church parlors beginning at 6:30.

Collections of stamps and frames prepared by local society members will be on display. In addition, Edward D. Hamilton, Oshkosh, past president of the Wisconsin Federation of Stamp Clubs and vice-president of the Wisconsin Postal History Society, will display some interesting material on postal history of the United States and Great Britain.

Harry Lindquist could with justice be called "Mr. Stamps". He is on the Roll of Distinguished Philatelists, a Fellow of the Royal Philatelic Society of London. He has been president of the Association for Stamp Exhibitions for some years and was head of the Centenary International Philatelic Exhibition staged in New York in 1947. A past president of the Collectors Club of New York, he is the only honorary life member of that organization. He has been president of the National Federation of Stamp Clubs since its organization and is an honorary member of over sixty stamp clubs in this country. The Iron Mountain stamp club, the Lindquist Club, was named after him.

Outside of philately he has wide interests and at present is president of the New York Athletic Club.

Born in Escanaba, Mr. Lindquist lived in Crystal Falls, Ishpeming and Iron Mountain before leaving the Peninsula. His first venture in the publishing of stamp journals was while a student of Hulst High School in Iron Mountain.

The Escanaba club is opening its banquet to the public. Stamp collectors and others who wish to attend may make reservations by telephone (1287-W) or mail with Roland Baldwin, 1811 Grand Ave., by April 19.

Netherlands Honors Five Michigan Men

(By The Associated Press)

Five western Michigan men were honored Thursday by the Netherlands government nad Queen Juliana. The queen will visit Grand Rapids and Holland next Wednesday.

Dr. J. B. Van De Mortel, Dutch consul-general, Chicago, presented the decorations and initiated the five into the order of Orange-Nassau.

Grand Rapids Mayor Paul G. Goebel was made an officer in the order, as were Mayor Harry Harrington of Holland and Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers, president of Hope College.

Holland municipal judge Cornelius Van Der Meulen and Dr. Abraham Leenhouts, also of Holland, were made knights.

In many cities of India the individual's rationt diet is only 12 ounces of grain a day.

McGuire Reelected Council President

MILWAUKEE—Ald. Milton J. McGuire (3rd Ward) Thursday was re-elected president of the Common Council at an organizational meeting attended by 25 of the 27 council members, winning out over Ald. Matt Schimenz (5th Ward).

McGuire is a former resident of Escanaba, a graduate of Escanaba High School. His siister, Mrs. Donald MacLean, resides at 402 S. Sixth St., Escanaba.

McGuire has been council president since 1944, when he succeeded John Bohn, who had moved up to the mayor's office.

In the voting, McGuire received 18 votes to seven for Schimenz. Schimenz then moved to make McGuire's election unanimous. The motion was carried. Schimenz was known as labor's candidate for the post. The AFL had opposed McGuire because he voted recently to liberalize the city's electrical code.

The council then voted unanimously to retain Stanley J. Witkowski as city clerk, a post he has held since 1940. The council also endorsed Emil F. Allee as deputy city clerk. He will be reappointed by Witkowski.

I Couldn't Raise My Arms To Comb My Hair Due To

ARTHRITIS

Mrs. Florence Abbee, 94 S. Howell St., Hillsdale, Michigan, suffered with Arthritis in her spine, arms and feet for many years before discovering amazing O-JIB-WA BITTERS.

Mrs. F. Abbee

"My trouble began several years ago after taking a nasty fall, for it wasn't very long after that when arthritis started to bother me. It pained me mostly in my spine, and gradually spread to my arms and feet. Sometimes, I couldn't raise my arms to comb my hair. Although I continued to work, the pains were so severe that many days, I thought I would have to quit. I heard about O-JIB-WA BITTERS and started taking it, and about two weeks I felt a lot better. Before very long, I was almost back to normal. It feels good to be able to raise my arms above my head again without pain. Everyone comments on how much better I look and how much more pep I have. I wish I had started taking O-JIB-WA BITTERS sooner, as it has really helped me in so many ways. I feel and sleep better than I have in years. In recommending O-JIB-WA BITTERS, I tell my friends to take it long enough and don't make the mistake of quitting too soon. It really is a remarkable medicine." Available in all leading drug stores.

Plush Living Of Army Occupation Officers Is Costly To Taxpayers

AMERICAN citizens should give ready support to the efforts of Sen. O'Mahoney and others, including Senator Ferguson of Michigan, to swing the ax at luxury living by American occupation forces in Germany.

The issue was brought to the fore recently by the German government itself which requested that a less pretentious program be established for American occupation officers in Germany as a means of reducing the occupation costs for the German government. Technically Germany is supposed to foot the bill as a part of the peace treaty. The German government protested tha theavy occupation costs have increased the government's financial difficulty and impeded their efforts to fulfill Germany's obligation to NATO, the western European army under General Eisehower's command.

The American Army command in Germany quickly rejected the suggestion.

Senator O'Mahoney has pointed out that it's not really Germany but the American taxpayers who are footing this bill, even though indirectly. We are doing it in terms of aid to Germany in one form or another.

Senator Ferguson is right in his assertion that extravagant living by American occupation officers in foreign lands is bad public relations for the United States.

The problem is in the hands of the Army at the moment and the Army can correct the situation if it desires. If it fails to do so, Congress should act to see that it is corrected.

The tax burden on the American people is staggering now and the time has come when some very sharp pruning of unnecessary expenses is urgent. These unnecessary expenses certainly include plush living quarters and free servants for occupation officers.

Truman Cabinet Jobs Are Short-Lived

LOOKING for a steady job? Then do not apply for a cabinet post in President Truman's administration. That sort of thing has proved to be just about the most insecure employment you could hold.

There was a time, not too long ago, when a fellow picked by a President for the cabinet had reasonable assurance of sticking in there throughout the President's term of office, whether it be four years or eight. It was, in fact, the rule rather than the exception.

Today all that is changed. Maybe it's the stress and strain of the times. Whatever it is, short-term service is standard. Cabinet members come and go like offensive and defensive football platoons.

Some get fired, some get worn out by it all, some deliberately restrict their tenure to two years or three. In many quarters this kind of duty is looked upon as the most hazardous front-line combat. It's something you don't take too much of if you want to preserve life and limb.

The recent "resignation" of Attorney General McGrath puts the matter in fresh focus. James McGranery, McGrath's successor, will be the fourth attorney general under Mr. Truman—if he should manage to win confirmation from the Senate.

Remember Francis Biddle, President Roosevelt's last appointee to that job? Then there was Tom Clark, who served just long enough to be regarded as socially acceptable in the rarer atmosphere of the Supreme Court. McGrath was next in line.

Mr. Truman has had four secretaries of State—Stettinius, Byrnes, Marshall and Acheson. He's had the same number of Defense secretaries—Forrestal, Johnson, Marshall and Lovett.

The turnover pace isn't quite so swift in some of the quieter cabinet backwaters. There have been but three secretaries of Agriculture, three secretaries of Commerce, three secretaries of the Interior, three of Labor.

Of course, the President acted in accord with tradition when he ousted most of the Roosevelt cabinet he inherited. A chief executive is expected to surround himself with men of his own choosing.

Yet, no one quite imagined when he did this that he was opening the gates to a flood. He's fixed it so that setting down the names of his full cabinet is about the toughest parlor game you can play.

Michigan Communists Required To Register

A powerful weapon to control the activities of Michigan Communists is provided by the Trucks bill which Governor Williams is expected to sign into law this week.

The law requires the registration of Communists in Michigan. The Communist party secretary, William Albertson of Detroit, has informed the governor that party members will refuse to register with state police as required by the act. However, refusal to sign is a violation in itself and known Communists can be prosecuted under the law.

Of course the law will drive the Michigan Communists underground but that is unimportant because only a very few Communists in the state are out in the open now anyway. Their sinister shenanigans are clandestine because their strength depends upon subterfuge and secrecy.

Albertson has called the Trucks bill an "unconstitutional monstrosity." It is ironical that the Communists, who disdain constitutional law, so often call upon the constitution for protection.

Communists have placed themselves beyond the protection of the constitution because a Communist owes his devotion and allegiance to Soviet Russia. As such, he is a traitor to his own country.

CITY PARKING LOTS
(Detroit Free Press)

We'd be hard pressed to think of a more absurd argument than the one that it would be socialistic for Detroit to operate municipal parking lots.

Parking is part and parcel of the general traffic problem. If it is proper for the City to provide streets over which automobiles may be driven, it is equally proper for it to furnish places where they can be left standing without being a nuisance to other drivers.

We would not want to see the private ownership of parking lots interfered with. It is a legitimate and necessary business. And we think anyone who wants to make his livelihood by operating one should be permitted to.

But where there are not adequate private facilities, and included in adequacy would be a reasonable price, it certainly is not Socialism for the City to go into the business. It is just as much a part of the traffic authorities' function and responsibility as widening a street or filling chuckholes.

We often wonder if the weatherman's corns hurt, too.

TB Drug Needs Further Tests To Certify Value as Positive

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

It is exciting when a new treatment for an old disease hits the headlines. But it is also confusing and sometimes conflicting testimony makes it difficult for people to know just what really has happened.

The most recent example of this kind is the wide-spread report of a new drug reported effective against tuberculosis. The facts of this story are fascinating. For years a search has gone on for some chemical agent which would attack the germ causing tuberculosis as successfully as penicillin and other preparations of a similar kind attack the germs of other diseases

Over the past few years thousands of chemicals have been tried in many different laboratories. Recently, by one of those coincidences which are so common in medical research, several laboratories at the same time found a chemical compound known as isonicotinic acid hydrazide, which has some remarkable properties in attacking the germ of tuberculosis.

The steps in studying the possible value of a chemical compound in a human disease are complicated. First, the chemical must be prepared in pure form. Then, if it is aimed at attacking a germ it must be tried out in a test tube.

If it works in the test tube, it must then go to another group of research workers who try it out in the appropriate experimental animals, first to see if the chemical works in the living body, and second, to see if it causes any harmful effects. Obviously all these experiments must be rigidly performed before a new chemical is tried in human beings.

All these steps were taken with the new anti-tuberculosis chemical, and it is now in the process of careful trial and study in men and women who are victims of tuberculosis. Even after the first steps have been taken and proved successful, drugs do not always behave in exactly the same way in human beings as in animals. Consequently, one cannot conclude for some time that this new drug is the final answer to the treatment of human tuberculosis.

SOME HAVE REACTIONS

For example, it is possible for some human beings to develop undesirable reactions to drugs and indeed a few of these have been reported with this new anti-tuberculosis drug. It is also possible that strains or varieties of the tuberculosis germ will develop which will resist the actions of the drug.

The present situation, therefore, with regard to this widely heralded anti-tuberculosis chemical is that it seems promising, it is not available for everyone as yet, and time will be necessary to find out all that is needed about its actions and possible side effects, and other time-proven methods of attacking tuberculosis should not be discarded for the present

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Dan Bolich, the No. 2 tax collector who bought $31 shirts and developed a special taste for $3.50 monogrammed handkerchiefs, pleaded poverty when he testified secretly before congressional investigators.

Later, when Bolich was called to a public session of the King tax-fraud subcommittee, he refused to answer on the ground of self-incrimination. But before he knew that committee-probers had the goods on him, he testified freely in private. This column has now obtained a copy of the secret cross-examination.

Two and a half years ago, this columnist, attempting to expose scandals in Internal Revenue, pointed to Bolich (Dec. 17, 1949) as an acquaintance of gambler Frankie Costello and told how Bolich had killed prosecution of the biggest tax-fraud case against Los Angeles gamblers—the Guaranty Finance Co. Another column told how Bolich mysteriously intervened to prevent prosecution in a $6,000,000 tax case against Mid-Continent Petroleum.

This was the deputy commissioner of Internal Revenue, later revealed to have spent in five years $63,000 more than his government salary.

MYSTERIOUS FINANCIAL FRIEND

Grilled secretly under oath, however, he talked freely but mentioned no monogrammed shirts or handkerchiefs.

"I am really behind the eight ball financially," he pleaded. "There is no doubt but that living in Washington I overextended myself financially, and the net result of it is that I am quite inclined to question as to whether it was worth even the inconvenience as well as the financial loss."

Bolich also explained his friendship with the mysterious Carl Routzahn, 73-year-old Mansfield, Ohio, merchant, who paid Bolich $400 a month—totaling over $30,000.

"He (Routzahn) was a very old and dear friend of the family's and my particular benefactor," the big tax collector told the investigators. "Mr. and Mrs. Routzahn had no children. And after her death, Mr. Routzahn made an arrangement wtih Mrs. Bolich and I that he would have a home with us for life and could have use of all of the facilities that are ours. , , The commitment was made, not in writing, but morally binding and forever will be, that Mr. Routzahn will have a home with us, which he does have."

But, in public session, he refused to talk about his elderly friend and financial angel.

"Have you any other indebtedness?" demanded agent George Lemay, after Bolich said he owed Routzahn $12,000 to $15,000.

"Only to Mr. Routzahn," replied Bolich.

But a few minutes later, he claimed: "As it is, I am very substantially in debt.

"I would like to say right at this moment," blurted Bolich, "that Mrs. Bolich and I have never entertained, and we have never gone anyplace. We have never been to Florida. We have never been to California. We have never been on an ocean voyage. I think we have been to Atlantic City maybe three times in 20 years, and our whole life has been devoted to just one thing, raising this family and educating them and trying to keep our head above water."

WON $7,500 ON TRUMAN

Bolich's income tax returns while he worked for the Internal Revenue Bureau listed only his government salary, plus $750 in 1945, $350 in 1946, $7,850 in 1948, and $600 in 1949. He explained the outside income during 1945 as the petty earnings of his children and a $50 election-bet pool that he won. In 1946, he claimed his only outside income came from his children's miscellaeous earnings. In 1948, he bet $750 on President Truman's election at 10-to-1 odds and collected $7,500, he explained. His 1949 outside income included his children's earnings and a $300 television set won by his youngest son, Joseph, in a church raffle.

The investigators later pieced together enough old bills and receipts to show that Bolich spent at least $63,000 more than he reported on his income tax returns during the same five years. Yet Bolich was then No. 2 man in charge of enforcing the tax laws.

The investigators also inquired about the notorious $250,000 Patullo Modes case. Bolich refused to comment on the case in public session, but admitted to investigators that he had ruled against criminal prosecution.

"My best recollection of that particular case is my connection with it as assistant commissioner," recalled Bolich. "That has to do with the attorneys for the taxpayer, Mr. Saver and Mr. Quinn, coming into my office in Washington and presenting the case from their point of view and from what I still think may be the facts; as a result of which I advised them to offer to cooperate fully. . . And that I would suggest to the New York office that it be given nonprosecution consideration. And that I did."

Greek Town The Reds Destroyed Rises To Weave New Life Again

By NEA Foreign Service

SPINNING NEW LIFE for Naoussa, Greece, the town destroyed by Communists three years ago, these girls operate new mill machinery bought in Italy with help from the Marshall Plan.

NAOUSSA, Greece— (NEA —A little more than three years ago, an armed band of Communists swoped down upon the small northern Greece textile town of Naoussa.

After only three days, they were driven out. But in that time they had reduced the town to rubble and, for every day they remained, it has taken more than a year to recover.

Homes and shops, factories, hotels, public buildings, the hospital and the electric plant—all were destroyed. More than 80 civilians, including the mayor, were murdered. Hundreds more were kidnaped. And the Communists stole everything they could move.

Naoussa was a ghost town. Its 4000 textile workers filtered back to find gaunt ruins where before had stood factories.

Yet today, with the aid of Marshall Plan funds, the workers of Naoussa have recovered from the blow and are contributing directly to the western defense effort. Local wool and cotton mills are producing more wool and cotton yarn than ever before, filling orders for 30,500 blankets and nearly 64,000 yards of uniform cloth for the Greek armed forces.

WHAT COMMIES LEFT of Naoussa after three-day orgy of destruction were ruins like this gaunt textile factory. Now town is back at work aiding the western defense effort.

The road back hasn't been easy. When the Communists attacked, Naoussa was still recovering from World War II. The prospect of starting all over again was far from hopeful.

It took courage, plus American aid totaling $3,627,101, more than $2,700,000 of it in foreign exchange. All but $200,000 of the foreign exchange went for machinery, the rest for raw materials. About a million dollars in drachmas from counterpart funds took care of local building and re-equipment needs.

All told, Marshall Plan aid brought in nearly 40,000 spindles. An entire cotton spinning plant was imported from the U. S. at a cost of $500,000. Its machinery gave jobs to 180 persons and its 8000 spindles now produce cotton yarn greater in value than all the spindles ruined by the Communists.

Naoussa now has 191 looms in place and 45 more to be installed. It has some 4500 textile workers and probably will get more because its abundant water power attracts textile plants. Population has increased from 12,000 to 16,000 in the last year alone.

Smugglers, Pirates, Slave Traders Bedevil Far East

By FRANK L. WHITE
AP Newsfeatures

MANILA—Rumors of a sudden upsurge in piracy, smuggling and slave trading in the island-studded Celebes Sea have reached the foreign offices of three nations.

Comely Indonesian girls, kidnapped from their island homes, are said to be appearing in the harems of Moro (Mohammedan) chieftains on Mindanao Island in the Philippines.

The girls command high prices on the illicit slave market. They reportedly are plucked from Indonesian coastal villages by bold Moro pirates who slip in under cover of darkness, then flee in small boats powered by brightly colored sails. Many elude naval patrol craft among the reefs and atolls.

Arms Smuggling Rumors

There have been other ugly rumors of guns and ammunition flowing into seething West Irian (Dutch New Guinea), where the Dutch and Indonesians accuse each other of inciting the natives to revolt.

Both nations claim West Irian. Guns and bullets from the Philippines are reported to be in great demand—just as in the days when Indonesians were battling to win their independence from the Netherlands.

Smuggling, piracy and slave trading are an old story in the waters south of the Philippines. However, the problem became one requiring action at the diplomatic level because of reports that pirates and smugglers are branching out, coupled with unrest in West Irian.

Report Requested

The Philippines foreign office has asked Indonesia for a full accounting of reports that scores of Philippines citizens are in Indonesian jails.

In a campaign to stamp out pirates and smugglers, the Indonesian government has strengthened coastal patrols and reportedly has jailed anyone picked up without an official permit.

The drive was ordered originally to curb the depredations of Moro pirates who seized copra boats off Indonesia, then sold the cargoes in British North Borneo.

Indonesia wants the Philippines to do something about kidnapers.

Resistance Expected

If the reports are true, the Moros could be expected to resist any attempt to interfere. While they are Philippines citizens, they never have been actually conquered.

The Spanish, the Americans and finally the Filipinos all have tried without success to subdue the fierce Mohammedan warriors.

The Philippines national bureau of investigation and congressional committees have been probing smuggling activities. There never has been an official disclosure of what they found.

The Netherlands government is keenly interested and is making its own investigation. Both Indonesian and Netherlands diplomats have been in consultation with the foreign office here.

So They Say

I know a number of Republicans who would give the leadership we need (in the White House). I only ask that the people include me in that number.—Gov. Earl Warren.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

STUDENT'S REPORT—Latest issue of Life magazine portrays "spring madness" on University of Michigan campus, when several hundred students went on dormitory raiding jamborees March 20—first day of spring.

The whole affair was exciting fun for everyone but school officials, who were philosophical rather than disturbed.

Life's pictures reveal the identity of a couple students whose homes are in Escanaba and Gladstone, but the magazine does not disclose their names and we will keep a discrete tongue in our cheek. Parents are prone to misunderstand "spring madness" — when their own springtime is so far behind.

In Escanaba the other day we talked with Jack Edick, home on vacation to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Edick, and we asked him about the campus rumpus. Jack is in his senior year at the University.

"I missed out on the whole thing," Jack reported with obvious disappointment. "I was studying in my room."

TRIP AND SKIP—Youth and springtime being synonymous, school officials have somewhat of a problem in controlling young people when Spring calls with bird songs and sunshine.

In grade school there is every possibility that boys will, on a nice day, simply decide they are not going to afternoon classes. They skip—and let parents and teachers punish if they wish. For they cannot take away the sweet of stolen pleasure.

Some high schools make an annual feature of skip day, in which school officials charitably close their eyes to empty class rooms.

Other high schools have what is known as trip day in springtime. On that day—long anticipated by the students—the graduating class is conducted on sightseeing tours to a previously selected destination.

NO HARDSHIP—Escanaba Senior High has no trip or no skip days and no one appears to be unreasonably restrained. There are the weekends and Easter vacation to enjoy the outdoors and all of the extra-curricular activities to keep student interest high at this time of year.

Administrators, whether of schools or shops or industries or homes, will tell you that without regulations and rules and their enforcement the result would be chaos rather than organization.

Youngsters often fret under the necessity to conform, no matter how gentle the application, and older persons will sometimes misunderstand the need for order and decry "regimentation" in the schools.

Perhaps they overlook the obvious fact that schools are training grounds for life, and that society gives small reward to individuals who break the rules.

THE HABIT OF WORK—In school as in life little can be accomplished without application to the job at hand, whether it be second year Latin or replacing worn piston rings in a motor.

If the habit of work is not formed during school years there is little possibility it will be acquired later.

Once out of school and on the job the individual will find employers frown on unnecessary absences, lack of application, and even those organized vacations without pay called strikes. The employer is concerned with production, and the old system of increased reward for increased production still holds true.

SHOWING THE WAY — Every human being rebels in one way or another against the monotony of work, and the "spring madness" episode at University of Michigan was one way to escape boredom.

Underneath the surface of nonsense in the young men and women in college and high school is serious determination to prepare well for a useful life.

We learned in talking with Jack Edick, for example, that he is interested in the application of atomic energy to industrial production. Majoring in engineering at the University, he is already looking forward to job interviews and work in his profession.

Life in colleges and universities is actually far different than Life magazine's picture splash of "spring madness." It is the unusual that receives attention.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

ANOTHER GROUP OF WORDS

Can you read Latin? The chances are that you will say, No. But the fact that you are reading this newspaper and this column indicates that you can certainly read some Latin, because a great part of the words that you see were at one time Latin.

Take the word "eject" (i-JECT). You know the word. Without hesitating, you'd say it means "to throw or cast out." It is Latin; formed from "ejectus," meaning "thrown or cast out." It came from the Latin preposition "ex," out, and "jacio," throw. So we can say that the root "ject" in any word means "throw or cast."

Now we can go on. The Latin preposition "ab" means "from, down from." So "abject" (AB-ject) means "downcast; low in spirit or hope"; as, "Many natives of India live in abject poverty."

"Con" means "with, together." So "conjecture" (con-JEK-chur) means a guess, something that is thrown together from incomplete evidence; as, "A biography of Chaucer could be little but conjecture."

"De" means "down." So "dejected (di-JEK-tid) means "cast down; disheartened". as, "Losing a single race should not make a boy dejected."

Latin "in" has the same meaning as our "in" or "into." So "inject, injection, injector" (in-JEKT, in-JEK-shun, in-JEK-tur) carry the motion of throwing in by force or pressure: "The doctor injected morphine"; "The injector became clogged."

"Ob" means "against or toward." We "object" (ob-JEKT) to a statement when we throw arguments against it. The "object" (OB-jikt) of a sentence is that toward which attention is thrown.

"Sub" means "under." One is "subject" (SUB-jikt) or under "subjection" (sub-JEK-shun) to a king when he is cast under the control of the king. The "subject" of a sentence is controlled by its predicate

Truman Anniversaries Roll Around In April

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON—(AP)—It's anniversary time around the White House.

One year ago today—actually, the announcement came in the middle of the night—Harry Truman fired Gen. Douglas MacArthur from all his Far Eastern commands.

And seven years ago tomorrow, the man from Missouri — dazed and frightened—suddenly found himself in a position to fire five-star generals. It was on April 12, 1945, that Franklin D. Roosevelt died and Harry Truman became president.

Echoes Still Rumble

There wasn't any anniversary celebration at the White House last year.

The executive mansion — like the rest of Washington, much of the country and many of the world's capitals—was in a turmoil over the MacArthur ouster, which produced one of the great controversies of the twentieth century.

Twelve months later the echoes are still rumbling and are likely to rumble louder in the election campaign ahead.

And each side contends as vociferously as ever that it was right.

Truman supporters say civilian control over the armed forces was preserved by the president's action. And that, because MacArthur's hit-'em-harder program was not followed, the Korean war was prevented from spreading, with the result that a truce may now be in sight.

MacArthur backers say a bloody stalemate has been brought about by failure to follow the general's proposals: to strike at Red air bases in Manchuria, to use the Chinese Nationalist troops on Formosa, to blockade the coast of Red China. Had the general's policies been carried out, his supporters say, the war might have ended by now in victory for the U. N.

The anniversary of MacArthur's firing finds the General still aloof from all suggestions that he run for president himself. He's getting write-in votes, however, in various primary elections. And the Republicans — Sen. Taft of Ohio in particular—expect him to speak up for their ticket in the coming campaign.

Truman has signed up definitely as a campaigner for the Democrats, though announcing that he won't be their candidate again.

And campaigner Truman will be a vastly different man from the vice-president who felt the universe had caved in on him just seven years ago tomorrow.

Borders On Cockiness

Even his critics will admit he's not easily stunned any more—and that he's just about impossible to scare.

The once self-effacing Senator radiates a confidence that seems to some people to border on cockiness.

He's seldom tense—outwardly, at least—these days.

Particularly since his announcement that he won't seek reelection, Truman has given the impression of being relaxed—even serene—to a degree that not even Franklin D. Roosevelt could achieve in his latter days in office.

Does this mean that he feels his job is done—that he can afford to drift through his last 10 months in office?

Some people expect him to do that. But the president seems to have other ideas.

One of his first acts after stepping out of the field of candidates was to get rid of his attorney general, J. Howard McGrath—a step he had avoided taking before and one he could have sidestepped this time.

Enjoys Brickbats

He followed through by ordering government seizure of the steel industry to head off a strike—a a highly controversial action far removed from any let's-let-things drift policy.

The fact appears to be that Truman, whatever his opponents may and do say to the contrary, is convinced he has done a good job as president and is determined that nothing must happen in the final months of his administration to spoil his record.

He claims for his administration the credit for preventing World War III. And he feels such sensations of the day as the corruption-in-government scandals will be forgotten by history—even if they are remembered by the voters in November.

To his own surprise, Truman has enjoyed being president a large part of the time in spite of the awesome decisions he has had to make, the brickbats that have been hurled at him, the lack of privacy that has tormented him and his family.

He hasn't let the job wear him down, either.

Though he'll be 68 on May 8, the President appears in robust health. His waistline bulges a little more than his doctor approves of, and his hair — more black than gray when he took office—is mostly white now. But there's an almost youthful bounce to his step.

Truman's early-to-bed routine, his after-lunch naps, his sometimes criticized Key West, Fla., vacations have eased the tremendous strain of office.

Want a lot of mileage for your money ?

WE'LL admit that the price tags of automobiles—all automobiles—aren't what they used to be.

But it's just as true today as ever before that some price tags are lower than others, and some cars cost less to own than others.

So let's see how a Buick SPECIAL fits into the picture.

Take first cost. If you put the price tag of this Buick against price tags of cars that have always been tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field"—you'll find that, in actual dollars, a Buick's surprisingly close to these cars of lesser size and horsepower.

But that's just the beginning.

What you're getting here is Buick quality—this SPECIAL comes down the same assembly line as SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Its heft tells you it has extra sturdiness in frame and structure.

Its Fireball Engine delivers extra power. It is an eight, a valve-in-head, with high compression, and the miles you can get from a gallon of gas make it a thrifty performer.

You get Buick's Million Dollar Ride, which protects you—and the car—from jars and jolts.

Even the tires are bigger—which, any tire man will tell you, lengthens their wear.

And if you pay a bit extra for Dynaflow Drive* you're easing the strain on the engine, the rear end, the tires—and eliminating clutch repair bills.

So when we talk about "mileage for your money" we're talking about the miles you'll get from your car—including the unused miles that are what you have to sell when you trade it in.

Maybe that's why Buick's doing so well in the present market. Why not come in and see what a great car this is for you?

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Wheel Crests standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series. White sidewalls optional at extra cost when available. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

It's Syrup Time In Delta County Maple Groves

MAPLE SYRUP PRODUCER Gus McFadden uses a piece of his modern operating equipment to tap a maple tree for drawing of sap, the first step in the job of making maple syrup. One of the biggest sugar plant operators in this area, McFadden annually taps over 3,000 trees on 80 acres of woodland in Watson, just north of Cornell. The gas-motor machine bores a hole in the tree in which is placed the drain "spile" or spout. A bucket is then hung on the spout to catch the flowing sap.

GATHERING BEGINS after a bucketfull of sap runs out of the tree. Sap is here being poured into a 20-quart pail by Charles Door, one of McFadden's helpers at the sugar camp McFadden started operations last week when clear, cold nights and mild, sunny days brought the first good runs.

POINT OF COLLECTION of the sap runs is the gathering rig, a 225-gallon metal tank on skids, drawn by tractor. The rig follows trails through the maple woods, stopping at various spots where sap is collected from buckets within a short walking distance. Here Mrs. McFadden halts the rig in a clearing to accumulate the sap run of near-by trees. Each load in the rig is hauled to the "sugar house" to await boiling—the actual making of the syrup.

SAP BECOMES SYRUP in the "sugar house". Here it is boiled in a large evaporator to remove its moisture content, making it the finished product. After boiling down, about 45 quarts of sap make one quart of syrup. McFadden sells the table syrup locally and ships some out in quart, one-half gallon and gallon containers.

SPILLING A PAILFUL of sap into the tank is another helper, William Usher, while J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, looks on. The length of the sugar season depends on the weather. Sap stops flowing when warm weather arrives.

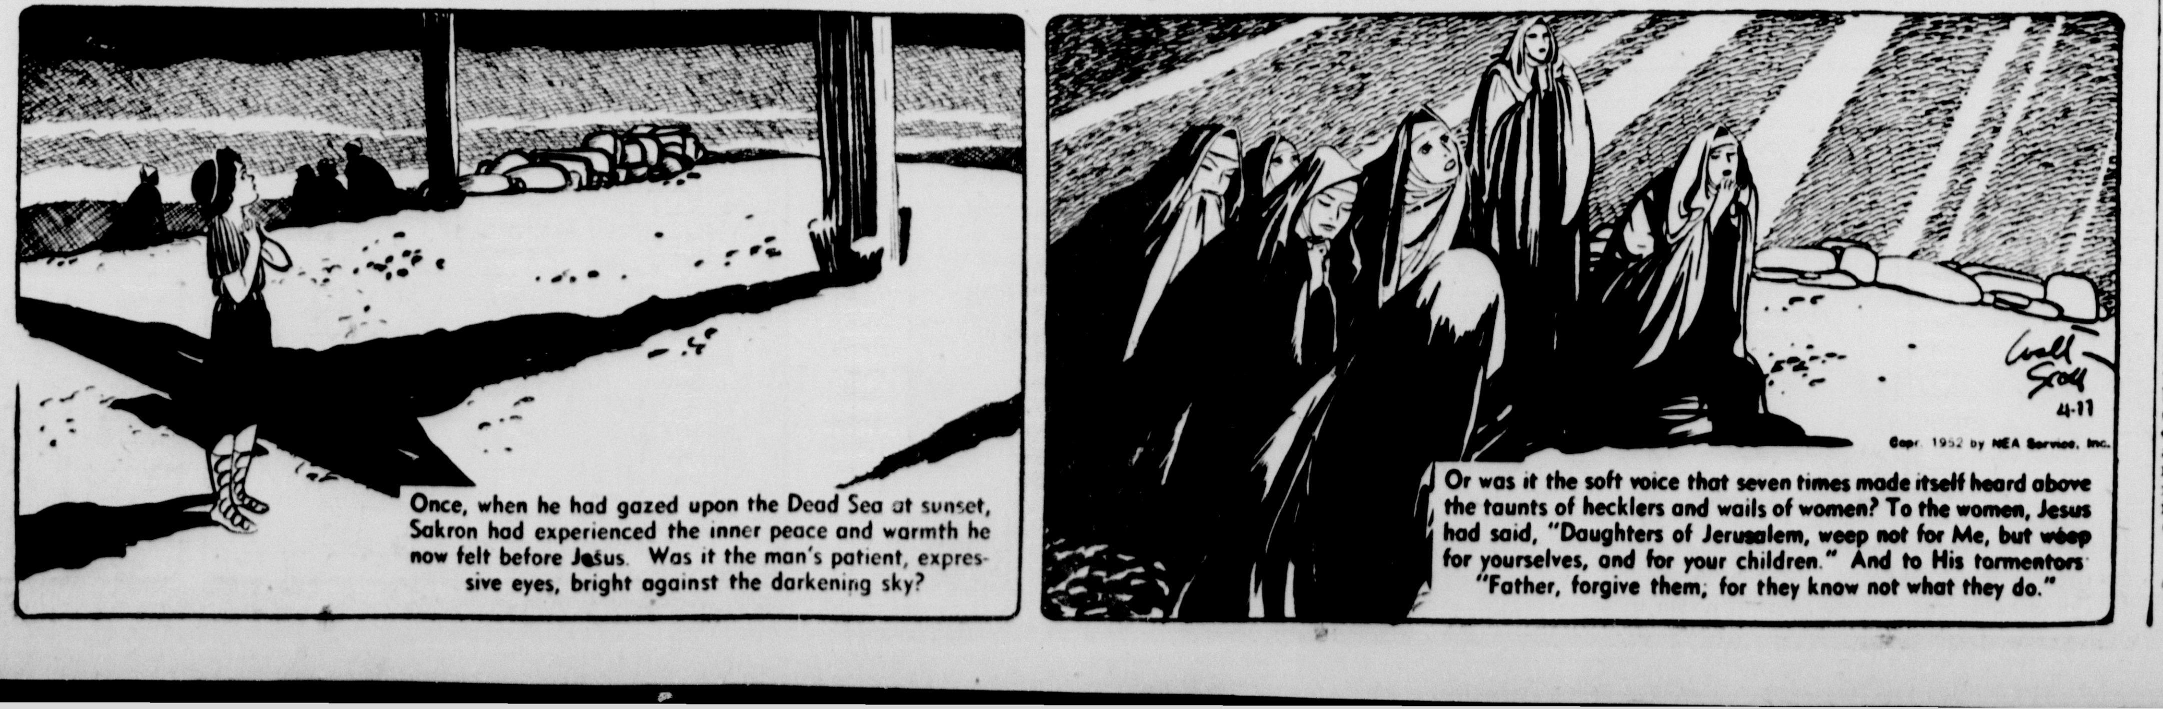
A Boy At Calvary

By Jay Heavilin and Walt Scott



Walt Scott

Once, when he had gazed upon the Dead Sea at sunset, Sakron had experienced the inner peace and warmth he now felt before Jesus. Was it the man's patient, expressive eyes, bright against the darkening sky?

Or was it the soft voice that seven times made itself heard above the taunts of hecklers and wails of women? To the women, Jesus had said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children." And to His tormentors "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do."

Family of Divorcee Shouldn't Bear Burden

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

Divorce brings hardships to all who are involved. It is hard on the husband, on the wife, and any children they may have. It is also hard on the parents of the divorced couple. Should they be the ones to pay the price of divorce in terms of personal sacrifices? Here is a case where the mother is one of the victims:

(Q) "I am divorced and have a three-year old child. I work to support myself and my child. My mother, who is 54, takes care of my child while I work. She is not in good health and it is hard on her, but she rarely complains. Now I want to marry again but my parents are opposed to it as the man I am in love with doesn't earn very much."

D. V.

(A) Are you being fair to your mother by asking her to shoulder the burden of caring for your child while you work? If she were in good health, it would still be hard on her to have the daily care of a lively three-year old. But, a woman in the 50's whose health is not good is certainly not strong enough for such a burden.

If remarriage after divorce is not against your moral or religious beliefs, it would be better for your child to have a home of her own, your constant care, and a father, even if he is only a stepfather, than to live as she is now living.

Your parents are justified in opposing your marriage to a man who is in no position to care for you and your child properly. And if you and he should have children, how could he manage to make two ends meet? This would mean an additional burden for your mother as you would have to continue working.

Even though you are divorced, your former husband is still legally responsible for the support of his child and he should be paying you something in alimony. See your minister and ask him if he cannot arrange with the courts to have your former husband assume his obligations to you and your child.

With financial help from him, you would be able to put your child in a nursery school while you worked or you could pay a younger woman to keep the child in her home with her own children. This would ease the burden that you have been putting on your mother's shoulders.

Escanaba Octet To Be Featured

The Escanaba Barbershop Octet will provide special music at the annual spring concert of the Manistique Municipal Band, scheduled for Wednesday evening in the high school auditorium.

The octet will provide pantomime and novelty types of music. With the group will be the Four Tissimos, a quartet which will sing a program of music of the Gay Nineties.

One of the best programs of band music ever presented by the local band is being arranged for the concert, it is announced. Rehearsals have been underway weekly during the winter under the direction of Ferd Gorsche. Selections to be played at the concert will be announced later by Gorsche.

Personnel of the band follows:

Trumpets—L. G. Gorsche, Francis Kasun, Richard Abrahamson, Ed Demars, Herbert Peterson, Rev. Reo Clyde.

Horns—Thomas Ross, Lauritz Hough.

Clarinets — Arthur Fountain, Harry Osterhout, Al Adams, Leroy Fox, Noel Harbin.

Baritone—William Raredon.

Saxaphones — Russell Brunet, Ralph Williams, Clarence Peterson, Bud MacDonald, Richard Hoppins.

Bass—Ernest Hoholik, Lawrence Strasler.

Trombones—Pete Gorsche, Paul Larson.

Drums—Joseph Brunet, Robert Orr, Max Naylor.

Conductor—Ferd Gorsche.

The stage of the auditorium will be decorated in the band's colors of black and gold, and an elevated platform will be built to provide the audience a better view of band members.

Slate Program On Lay Retreats

A program on lay retreats featuring a movie on Marygrove Retreat House, Garden, will be presented at a monthly meeting of St. Anne's Altar Society Tuesday evening, April 15, it is announced.

The meeting will be held at St. Francis de Sales school, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The motion picture will portray actual scenes during retreats at Marygrove. In addition there will be talks on lay retreats by the Rev. F. M. Scheringer, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church, and the Rev. Charles Carmody, assistant pastor of St. John the Baptist church in Garden.

The program is designed to stimulate interest in the first retreat for women at Marygrove, scheduled for April 22 to 24.

Representatives from three circles of the altar society comprise the local lay retreat committee. They are. St. Therese's Circle, Mrs. Joseph New and Mrs. Henry Gauthier; St. Rita's Circle, Mrs. Katherine Kefauver; and Our Lady of Fatima Circle, Mrs. Emma Fountain.

In addition to the retreat program at Tuesday night's meeting, the study of the mass will be continued under the direction of the Rev. Scheringer. There also will be a comic movie skit.

The hostess circle will be the St. Elizabeth, with Mrs. John W. Kelly and Mrs. Ray Knauf in charge of lunch.

All members of the altar society and St. Francis de Sales parish are invited to the meeting.

Test Program For Bang's Disease In Alger Scheduled

MUNISING—A Bang's disease testing program is scheduled for Alger County next week, it is announced by Clayton D. Reid, of Manistique, county agricultural agent.

Reid said that the test is made every three years and should be welcomed by dairymen and farmers as a means of keeping their herds free of Bang's disease.

Three years ago when the test was made only three herds in Alger County had any infection, the county farm agent reported. As a result of continuous testing the infection has been eliminated and the herds have now passed three clean tests.

"A continuous testing program protects your herd's health and thus your profits," Reid stated. "More important, it protects your own health because undulant fever can be caught through contact with cattle which have Bang's disease."

Cattle should be stanchioned and tied at the time of testing, and two men should be available for assistance, Reid pointed out.

Dr. C. D. Logsdon is in charge of all testing in the east end of the Upper Peninsula. Dr. G. W. Northstrom and Dr. E. J. Wuellner will be doing the work in Alger County. They will not have student help as they had three years ago.

Vigil Services Saturday Night

In accordance with a decree promulgated by the Holy See in Lent of 1951, the Easter Vigil will be observed at St. Francis de Sales Church between the hours of Saturday night and Easter morning, concluding around midnight with the First Mass of Easter, it is announced by the Rev. F. M. Scheringer, pastor.

Prior to issuance of the decree the vigil was observed for centuries on Holy Saturday mornings in the world's Roman Catholic churches.

The restored Vigil Service calls for more complete participation of the laity and hence special booklets have been provided for the people who attend the Holy Saturday service here, the Rev. Scheringer said.

The Vigil Service will begin at 11 p. m. when the blessing of the new fire and the paschal candle will take place. The solemn procession, the Prophecies and the Litany follow. The blessing of baptismal water and the renewal of baptismal vows come next, and the solemn mass of the Easter Vigil concludes the ceremonies.

Liturgical music for the Vigil will be provided by a grade school choir of 50 voices especially trained by the Franciscan Sisters.

Other Easter masses will be at 8, 10 and 11:30 a. m. Music of the 10 a. m. mass will be supplied by the senior choir under the direction of Ferdinand Gorsche, with Miss Geraldine Gorsche at the organ. The program follows:

Vidi Aquam (Perosi), full choir.

Pieto Yon's Mass, Thy Kingdom Come, full choir and the following soloists: Shirley Rozich, Mrs. George Patrick and Ferdinand Gorsche.

Regina Coeli, offertory solo by Mrs. George Patrick with choir.

Name Four New C-C Directors

Four new directors of the Top O' Lake Michigan Chamber of Commerce were announced yesterday afternoon following a tabulation of the annual vote at the chamber office.

New directors elected from a list of 24 candidates were:

Retail division, Alvin Nelson; guest and tourist division, Alvin Nelson; wholesale, utility and industrial division, John Moffat; general development division, Everett Anderson.

Votes were counted by a committee composed of Thomas Grimsley, Ernest Eckland, and C. L. Smith, with Fred D. Heltman, chamber secretary, assisting.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Theresa Marie Pepin, who passed away one year ago, April 1951.

Like a rose from the garden of love
He picked her,
To brighten His throne up above,
May her soul rejoice with His blessings
In glory of Heaven above.

Sadly missed by her parents, sisters and brothers,

The 1952 baseball outlook in Tri County circles is not the brightest possible . . . More than one manager at the recent reorganizational meeting in Hermansville expressed concern for the coming season . . . Many teams have lost established stars, either to the armed services or to larger cities with industrial work atractions . . . Most of the managers indicated that younger ball players will make up the bulk of the teams.

* * * * *

Jack Beck, long associated with Escanaba baseball, represented the Escanaba Bears at the meeting . . . Jack will probably manage the Esky entry this season . . . He says the Bears will be a young team with a sprinkling of veterans . . . Jack knows his baseball and works well with young men—he would be a good choice for manager in our opinion.

* * * * *

The Tri County league board of directors, composed of the managers of the teams, approved the loop by-laws as they existed except in one instance . . . A change was made in eligibility ruling which tightens the regulation governing players from other leagues . . . The revised regulation now states that a player will be ineligible to play in the Tri County league if he is a member of a team in any other organized league . . . However, if a player wants to transfer to the Tri County he may do so and becomes eligible after sitting on the bench for two weeks.

* * * * *

Teams from Perronville and Daggett were not represented at the meeting . . . It is understood that both are having difficulty with organization plans but it was indicated that both will probably rejoin the Tri County circuit this season.

* * * * *

Our suggestion that managers seek to shorten the playing season was considered and most of the board felt it was possible to work out a schedule of games to include mid-week contests . . . No attempt was made to draw a schedule at the meeting, however.

Longer Escanaba Rink Urged By Hockey Fans

By James G. Ward

In order to compete successfully over a period of years with such capable hockey teams as are turned out in Houghton, Calumet and Marquette, Escanaba should have a longer indoor hockey rink.

This thought has been expressed many times by the growing number of ice hockey fans in the Escanaba—Gladstone-Manistique-Iron Mountain-Menominee area—or the south central portion of the Upper Peninsula.

It also has been expressed in letters from interested persons in Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette, Stambaugh, Calumet, Laurium, Hancock and Houghton. All of which certainly indicates an all-Upper Peninsula flavor to local efforts to procure a longer rink in an enlarged exhibition building at the U. P. state fairgrounds—home ice for Escanaba's popular Hawks.

Move Underway

Currently, a move is underway with the cooperation of the U. P. state fair board, U. P. Development bureau and state building division to enlarge the exhibition building to provide more space for large-type industrial exhibits and to increase the scope of the entire fair program.

The plan is directly in line with action on the part of the Michigan Department of Economic Development and its U. P. Advisory Committee to procure more and varied industry in Upper Michigan. It is felt that if Upper Peninsula residents can learn more about U. P. industry at the U. P. fair the overall effort to attract more industry here will be helped considerably.

It is hoped that the combined efforts of those interested in an industrial exposition and those interested in enlarging the winter recreational program in this area will result in an extended exhibition building.

Portage Lake Letter

Latest to second the motion that Escanaba should have a longer rink are the Portage Lake Hockey club and Houghton and Hancock businessmen.

In a letter addressed to the Escanaba Hockey association and signed by Fred Welsh and Timothy J. Doyle, manager and secretary, respectively, of the Portage Lake Hockey club, the players and fans in the Escanaba area were congratulated heartily.

"We think you have a grand bunch of hockey fans in Escanaba and we hope you will be in there again next year with a bangup team," Welsh and Doyle said.

"There is a suggestion we would like to offer, however. We would like to see your ice surface extended to equal the rinks in Houghton, Calumet and Marquette.

Need Showers

"Also, dressing rooms should be provided with showers for the players. It is rather dangerous for the health of the boys to come in sweating after a game and have to change into street clothes and go somewhere else for a shower. (The Escanaba Hockey association made arrangements for visiting players to use showers at either the William Bonifas gym or the Junior High School gym).

"Possibly the powers-that-be at your rink will do something about this situation as it would be good for your boys as well as visiting teams. Your fans also would benefit, for with a larger rink they would see much faster, better and more interesting hockey.

"Again, we wish you and your boys the best of luck and we hope to have the pleasure of playing with your organization next year."

Pony League To Meet April 22

Date of the final organizational meeting of the Pony League baseball board of directors has been changed to Tuesday, April 22, it was announced today by Francis Rooney, president.

The meeting, at which a financial report is due on progress to date in obtaining funds to get the league in operation, will be held at the Escanaba Youth Center.

Pony League, baseball for boys 13-14 years of age, is making its first appearance in Escanaba. It is designed to operate for boys who are over the age limit in Little League but still under the usual age of boys in the American Legion Junior baseball program.

Pony League sponsors hope to inaugurate a six-team circuit in Escanaba this summer. Funds are needed to provide uniforms and equipment for the teams.

U. P .Keg Tourney Action Continues

GLADSTONE — The Upper Peninsula Bowling tournament swings into its third weekend tonight at 9 when an 8-team block takes to the Midway lanes in an effort to top the first place 2665 of the Pelletier Wholesale of Houghton.

Saturday at 12 noon a sextet of Iron Mountain rollers will take a crack at the singles and they'll be followed at 2 in the afternoon by a Marquette sextet in both doubles and singles.

Three Iron Mountain 5-man teams will roll at 4 and there will be 8-team groups bowling in the evening at 7 and at 9.

On Sunday at 10 a Hancock sextet will try for the doubles and singles crowns. Manistique, Marquette and Bessemer kegelers are scheduled in doubles and signles at noon Sunday and a group of 18 from Ishpeming and Iron River take the lanes at 2 in both doubles and singles.

Two teams will roll at 4 and 8 others from Daggett, Chatham and Iron River are scheduled for 7 in the evening. At 9 Sunday night Iron River and Niagara bowlers will open fire on the doubles and singles scores.

Brawl Ends Hockey Tilt

NEW HAVEN, Conn.— (AP) —A brawl that landed a player in police court and sent the referee to a hospital brought a riotous ending to a game in the Eastern Hockey league playoffs here.

The score—Johnstown Jets 4, New Haven Tomahawks 1—was almost overlooked last night in the excitement that saw end-of-the -rink bleacherits tearing up with pieces of wood and metal.

League President Tom Lockhart said he would decide today on what to do about defenseman Joe Desson, the Tomahawks' captain from Niagara Falls, N. Y., accused of deliberately bumping referee Mickey Slowick into the boards. Lockhart told newsmen it was possible he would impose a lifetime ban.

New Haven police arrested Desson after the game, booked him on a breach of the peace charge and held him in $500 bail. While Desson went to police headquarters, Slowick went to New Haven hospital. Physicians treated him for a slight laceration.

The Desson-Slowick clash occurred late in the game after four penalties had been called on New Haven in quick succession.

So much debris, including heavy pieces of metal, sailed onto the ice around the Johnstown net that the Jets refused to go on with the game. After several minutes' delay, Johnstown was allowed to defend the opposite net and the game continued.

The fifth game in the best of seven championship playoff series will be here Sunday. The Jets lead 3 to 1.

NO-HITTERS THAT BLOOM IN THE SPRING —Three no-hit games showed how far the pitchers were ahead of the batters in the Spring exhibition games. Steye Ridzik, left, of the Phillies went all the way against the Cardinals. Jim Hearn, center, of the Giants slammed the door in the Cubs' faces for seven innings, after which Monte Kennedy, left inset, completed the job. Bucs Have Biggest And Smallest Rookies; Hall 6-6, Koshorek 5-5

By LES BIEDERMAN

WASHINGTON —(NEA)—The Pirates have one distinction this Spring that no other club in the majors can match.

They have the biggest and the smallest recruits.

The largest is 21-year-old Dick Hall, the six-foot-six, 208-pound Swarthmore College first baseman.

NICE CATCH — Barbara Midgette of Frisco Village, Hatteras Island, N. C., admires an awesome 42-pound channel bass caught in nearby waters. Channel bass fishing is a favorite pastime with Hatteras anglers, begins with the arrival of the bass late in March and runs through the Summer. NEA Photo)

The smallest is five-foot-five Clem Koshorek, 25, a mere 150 pounds of shortstop, but a bundle of energy.

Mighty Mite

Koshorek is a mighty mite, no doubt the tiniest athlete in the big leagues, probably in organized baseball.

Wherever he plays, the wee fellow captivates the fans with spectacular fielding. Whether he makes a startling play or does a routine job, the customers cheer. When he comes to bat, the fans give him the glad hand.

Koshorek is sensitive about his size, or lack of it. He feels that because he's so small, he never has had a real opportunity.

"They take one look and forget me," the Polish kid says, in all sincerity.

"If they go along with me, give me a chance, I'll show them I belong up here and can help.

"I've been on pennant-winners in the minors, know the difference between winning and losing.

"I play like Eddie Stanky—to win.

Won Pennant

"I joined Little Rock last Spring after they had finished 32 games behind seventh place the year before. We were picked last again, but we won the pennant by 10."

Koshorek has made the All-Star team in almost every league in which he has played in his six years in the minors, yet this is his first trip with a big league club.

His one weakness is his batting, but Bill Meyer feels he could become a second Stanky in the base-on-balls department. Manager Meyer is trying to convert Koshorek into a waiter.

The Pittsburgh club looks much better when Koshorek is at shortstop.

Good Arm

He ranges all over the field, has a good arm.

The Giants were captivated by his performance, considered him the flashiest shortstop they had seen all Spring.

Baseball hasn't been too good financially to the mighty mite. He signed with the Tigers in 1946, played at Jamestown, N. Y., where his pay check was $550 for the season. Last year, in Little Rock, he received $3000.

The mighty mite is married and has a 20-months-old son.

Clem Koshorek has had to play Winter ball to make both ends meet.

Michigan Baseball Team Beats Military District Nine 2-0

FORT MEYER, Va.— (AP) —The touring University of Michigan baseball team won a 2-0 decision yesterday from a Military District of Washington team.

Michigan scored in the sixth and ninth innings in defeating the soldier team composed of players from here and nearby Fort McNair.

Wolverine pitcher Jack Corbett allowed only four hits. It was the Army team's first loss of the season.

Women's Dartball Tourney To Open On Monday Night

The women's dartball tournament will get under way Monday, April 14, at Carpenters Hall, with first round play starting at 7 o'clock.

The opening round schedule pits Nap & Bea's against St. Anthony CYO, R. C. Union against Sayklly's, Coca Cola against Escanaba Gloves and Bero's against Bevco's.

Kessler's drew a bye and will play the R. C. Union-Sayklly winner. R. C. Company drew the bye in the lower bracket and will play the winner of the Bero's-Bevco game. Semifinals and finals will be played Tuesday night.

No Deferment, Mays To Be Inducted In Armed Forces May 17

MONTGOMERY, Ala.— (AP) — Willie Mays, young New York Giant centerfielder, must report for induction into the armed forces May 17. Alabama selective service director James T. Johnson announced that ruling yesterday, after turning down May's request for deferment because of dependents. Mays' home is in Birmingham.

Mays, who will be 21 May 6, says he is the chief support of four of his nine brothers and sisters and four other relatives.

Col. Johnson said that to be excused under the dependency requirements, a man must be married with one child and be present in the home to look after the everyday needs of those claimed as dependents.

Each Pennant Contender Has One Key Player Who Could Tip Scales

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK—(AP)—Each of the six top ranking contenders for the major league penants has at least one key player who can settle the flag races.

Bobby Thomson

Last year the dopesters observed that Bobby Thompson and Monte Irvin would have to have big years for the New York Giants to win the flag. They were correct. Both athletes had great years and the Giants did go on to win.

Heading this year's key men are the same Thomson and Bob Elliott of the Giants, Clem Labine of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Bob Lemon and Luke Easter of the Cleveland Indians, Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees, Curt Simmons of the Philadelphia Phillies and Eddie Stanky of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Heavy Load

Thomson, who last year struck perhaps the most significant home run in baseball history, carries the heaviest load. Bob must assume the lead role now that Monte Irvin is sidelined with a broken ankle.

Elliott, acquired from the Boston Braves earlier this week, must fill Irvin's shoes until Monte returns to action. The 36-year-old slugger is counted on to drive in the runs and hit the long ball that made Irvin the most valuable Giant in 1951.

Lemon, who had a so-so 17-14 record last year after three straight 20-game winning seasons, must have a big year. He is expected to take up the slack should Bob Feller, Early Wynn or Mike Garcia fail to repeat their 20-game seasons of '51.

Big Indian

Easter figures to be the big gun in the Indians' attack. The big question is whether his left knee, which underwent surgery last winter, will stand up. He missed the Indians first 29 games last year and the club lost 17 of them. Despite that he drove in more than 100 runs.

Berra, voted the American League's most valuable player last year, takes Joe Di Magio's place as the "Big Guy" of the Yankees. That means he probably will also take over Di Magio's cleanup spot in the lineup. Yogi has no great desire for that role.

Simmons, back from the Army, is expected to team up with Robin Roberts as the top pitching pair in the National League. Philadelphia manager Eddie Sawyer is banking all his pennant hopes on the young southpaw who sparked the Phils to their first flag in 35 years with 17 victories in 1950. With Simmons in the Army, the Phils dropped to fifth last year.

Stanky Key Man

Stanky, making his bow as a big league manager, is the key to the entire Cardinal infield. If Eddie can play 100 games at second base, it would enable him to use Red Schoendienst, one of the most versatile players in the game, at either first, short or the outfield.

Other clubs also have key men who can be the difference of one or two places in the standings. The Tigers will depend a great deal on Art Houtteman, their 19-game winner of 1950, who is back with the club after a year in the service.

With Ted Williams all set to rejoin the Marines, the spotlight falls on Walter Dropo. The big first baseman must produce the big blows formerly provided by Williams if the Red Sox are to go anywhere in the race.

The destiny of the Chicago White Sox rests with Orestes Minoso. The flashy Cuban must duplicate his sensational work last year if the Sox are to furnish a real threat to the Yankees and Indians for the American League flag.

Rule No Overtime In Stanley Cup Playoff Game Tomorrow Night

MONTREAL— (AP) —If Detroit and Montreal are tied at the end of the regulation time tomorrow night in the Stanley Cup playoff finals tomorrow night no overtime will be played.

National Hockey League President Clarence Campbell said yesterday the provision was made because the teams have to catch a train for Detroit for the third game Easter Sunday night.

If tomorrow's game ends in a tie, it will be replayed as an eighth game provided neither Detroit nor Montreal wins the cup in the remaining six games.

Quantico Marines Win Court Honors

QUANTICO, Va.—(AP)—The Quantico Marines are the All-Marine basketball champions. They had a season record of 37 wins and only seven losses.

In the Marine playoffs thew beat the San Diego Gyrenes in two straight contests. Top scorer for the Quantico quintet was Jim Phelan, former La Salle College star. He had a 13.1 average for 38 games.

How Long Does Marathon Go On For Heavyweights?

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Now suppose Ezzard Charles beats Jersey Joe Walcott when they meet for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world June 5.

Does Walcott then become the logical contender, entitled to the first chance at the title?

And then suppose this match is made, and Walcott wins, does Charles become the man most entitled to fight for the championship?

When, if ever, will this marathon match-making end?

NBA RATINGS

This thought comes up today because of the National Boxing Association quarterly ratings.

These ratings, announced yesterday, show Walcott at the top of the heap. Just beneath him is Charles, the man he fought five times and then finally defeated with a seventh round knockout in Pittsburgh July 18.

Still hanging around the fringes, hoping that either Walcott or Charles, or both, give up, are Rocky Marciano and Clarence Henry, rated at No. 3 and No. 4 among the heavyweights.

There were no particular surprises among the ratings, except perhaps that the NBA found such a large number of boxers worthy of special mention.

Six Outstanding

For example, take Sugar Ray Robinson, the middleweight king.

The NBA rated five boxers as logical contenders for his title, topped by Randolph Turpin of England. He held the title briefly, winning it from Robinson and then losing it back again.

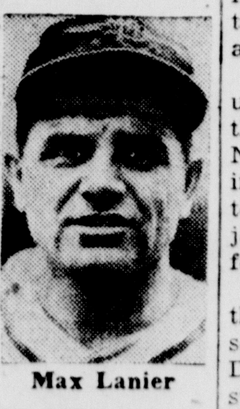
In addition, the NBA said six middleweights are outstanding and another 10 rate an honorable mention.

Rocky Graziano, who fights Sugar Ray for the title Wednesday night, got a poor report card from the NBA. He was set down as the tenth best of the middleweights, outstanding, but no logical contender.

Managers Not So Sorry For New York Giants After All

By ED CORRIGAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Seven National League managers were thinking that, well, maybe they could spare a little sympathy for Leo Durocher, the harassed manager of the champion New York Giants. He had lost Monte Irvin and Willie Mays, two-thirds of his regular outfield, and what manager can afford that sort of a blow?



Max Lanier

But upon thinking it all over today, they went back to feeling sorry for themselves — all except Brooklyn's Chuck Dressen, who still thinks the Dodgers will win the pot.

Not only does Durocher have Bob Elliott to take Irvin's spot, but he has decided to give Dick Wakefield, who has played in just about all four corners of the country, a tryout. This will be the last one for the former University of Michigan bonus baby. He was turned down by several other major league teams.

Wakefield Hitting

The way Durocher has been waving his magic wand, it wouldn't be a surprise to see Wakefield come through. Although the Lip is counting on his newest acquisition for pinch-hitting chores at the moment, Dick could fill Mays' shoes if he looks good. He's been pounding the ball with authority and has banked out three hits in his four trips to the plate including two in yesterday's 4-0 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

The Giants had been taking regular pastings from the Tribe in their cross-country tour, and the New York win was only the third in 14 games between the two teams, hardly a record to bring joy to the front office of the defending champions.

But it was a noteworthy one, at that, for the Giants. Larry Jansen and Max Lanier, a couple of Durocher's top elbowmen, demonstrated midseason form in whitewashing the hard-hitting Indians. Jansen went the first six innings and turned back the first 10 Indians to face him. Lanier finished up.

The Dodgers managed to pull one out of the fire, overcoming the Washington Senators, 4-3, after trailing, 2-0, after three innings. Starter Chris Van Cuyk was the winner. Bobo Newsom, at 43, starting his fifth term with the Nats, hurled the last three innings and sent nine Dodgers in a row back to the bench.

The Boston Barves' Warren Spahn gave up nine hits, but they were scattered enough to enable his team to decision the Boston Red Sox, 5-4, despite a one-on home run by Junior Stephens.

In the only other game between major league clubs, the Philadelphia Phillies nipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-7, in a six-inning contest called to permit the teams to catch a train. Lucky for the Phils. The Cards scored twice in the seventh to go ahead, but the Phils couldn't get in their time at bat, so the score reverted to the end of the sixth.

Major league teams broke even in four games with minor league squads. The Philadelphia A's stopped Greensboro of the Carolina league, 9-6, and the Chicago White Sox had to go 10 innings before whipping the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association, 10-9.

The World Champion New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers weren't so fortunate. The Yanks dropped a 6-2 verdict to the Baltimore Orioles of the international league and the Tigers were trimmed by the Chattanooga Lookouts of the Southern association, 6-3.

Garden No. 1 Team Wins Dartball Title

RAPID RIVER — The Garden No. 1 took top honors in the Bay de Noc dartball tournament here this week, with Fayette second and Stonington winning consolation.

Garden No. 1 also won the regular league championship. Batting prize was won by Larry Lundin of Ensign who hit at a .505 season pace and had a .667 tourney average. Harry Gierke of Fayette hit a pair of homers in tourney competition.

Favor King To Beat St. Paul Lightweight

NEW YORK — (AP) — Arthur King, aiming for a lightweight title shot, is a 2 to 1 favorite to score his sixth straight victory at Del Flanagan's expense tonight in the main ten rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

L'll Arthur has won his last five bouts for a record of 51 victories and seven defeats.

Flanagan, on the other hand, seems to be slipping. The 23-year-old St. Paul scrapper dropped five of his last seven starts.

The 10 p. m., (EST) bout will be broadcast (ABC) and telecast.

Time-Clock Confusion As Red Wings Win 3-1

MONTREAL — (AP)—The night of the time-clock confusion and Detroit Red Wings' 3-1 victory over Mentreal Canadiens became part and parcel of Stanley Cup hockey history today.

Little Tony Leswick's two goals supplied the bulk of the scoring records for the first game of the best-of-seven final series.

Official timekeeper Cappy Layne of New York was the storm center of the time-clock shenanigans last night.

One outstanding question was whether the teams played 20 or 21 minutes in the final period. This question had a bearing on the yanking of Canadiens' goalie so six potential scorers could go into action and try to tie up the game while Detroit led, 2-1.

Crowd Howls

When the game appeared to go into overtime, the crowd of 14,523 in Montreal forum looked on bewildered. When the siren sounded the crowd was roaring in indignation and Detroit had added another goal. Timekeeper Layne was hustled from the forum under protection, the crowd howling louder with hundreds trying to reach the timer's bench.

The game was still Detroit's, after 60—or 61 if you prefer—minutes of hard-hitting, open-play hockey. The first-game victory meant a sizeable edge in the short series, with the second game coming up tomorrow night on the same ice.

Neither team scored in the opening period. But at 3:27 of the second period, little Tony came galloping in to grab the first goal.

Tony's next, at 7:59 of the last period, was a long shot from just inside the Montreal blue line. He took a pass from Glen Skov and let drive. Goalie Gerry McNeil's view was blocked and the puck whistled through a maze of players right into the net.

Final Score

Canadiens fought back and Tom Johnson finally slapped in a rebound or Bert Olmstead's shot. That ended the scoring until the timing muddle. With McNeil out of the nets, Ted Lindsay took Sid Abel's pass and drove the puck into the open cage.

Comments on the timing fiasco:

League President Clarence Campbell: "The teams played 21 minutes."

Coach Dick Irvin of Canadiens: "The timer got mixed up somehow about the last minute of play. Do you think I would be dumb enough to pull out my goalie with about two minutes left? We're going to protest use of all officials from New York appointed by the league for this series."

General Manager Frank Selke of Canadiens: "All the timer had to do was to use the clock devices correctly."

General Manager Jack Adams of the Red Wings: "They've got a $1,000,000 hockey team in Montreal and a bush-league clock."

QUESTION: Cleveland produced three 20-game winners last year—Bob Feller (22-8), Mike Garcia (20-12) and Early Wynn (20-13)— and still failed to win the pennant. Has this happened to any big league club before?

Answer: Yes. The White Sox of 1920 failed to win despite FOUR 20-game winners — Urban Faber, Claude Williams, Dickie Kerr and Eddie Cicotte.

Q. Has a fair ball ever been hit out of Yankee Stadium ?

A. No.

Q. Who was the fourth infielder in the famed Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance double play combination?

A. Third Baseman Harry Steinfeldt.

Q. Who was the last left-handed catcher in the majors?

A. Despite Branch Rickey's experiments in recent years, the 1902 Dodgers' Joe Wall was the last left-handed backstop in the big leagues.

East-West Shrine Cage Clash Set

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—The first annual East-West basketball game, played for the benefit of the Shriners' hospitals for crippled children, is assured a capacity crowd of more than 10,000 in Municipal Auditorium tomorrow night. The Ararat Shrine temple reported at a banquet honoring the players and coaches last night that less than 1,000 tickets remained for the all-star game.

Phog Allen, dean of the nation's coaches and tutor of the NCAA and Olympic collegiate champion Kansas Jayhawks, is handling the West team. He has three of his own stars—All America Clyde Lovellette, Bill Houghland and Bob Kenney.

Henry (Hank) Iba, Oklahoma A. and M. coach, is directing the East all stars. Iba is building his attack around Aggies Don Johnson and Pete Darcey.

Leaders Hang On In ABC Tourney

MILWAUKEE— (AP) —No one could budge the top 10 leaders in any division in the American Bowling Congress tournament yesterday.

The best showing in the slow day of rolling was an 1,806 all events total put together by Don Wroten of Tacoma, Wash. He had 565 in team, 605 in doubles and 636 in singles.

Other top counts were the 1,210 doubles score of William Reinke and Bernie Soch of Sheboygan, Wis., and the 656 in the singles by Joseph Karadeema, Tarentum, Pa.

There were no regular teams in action last night. Lower average booster squads had the alleys and will keep them until Monday. No doubles or singles action is slated until that day and regular teams won't be back at work until Monday night.

Tigers Drop 6-3 Decision To Chattanooga Lookouts

COLUMBUS, O. — (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, winners of five out of six games against minor league teams, take on the Cincinnati Reds here tonight in the first of three games which wind up the 1952 exhibition schedule.

Fred Hutchinson

Detroit, yesterday, dropped its finale against Southern Association teams, losing a 6-3 decision to the Chattanooga Lookouts at Chattanooga.

Hit Hutch

The Lookouts hit starter Freddie Hutchinson for five big runs in the second inning to take a lead they never relinquished.

A towering home run by Cliff Mapes accounted for the Tigers three runs in the sixth inning.

Pitcher Bob Mitchell gave up a single to Ben Taylor to open the sixth. Hoot Evers followed with a double and then Mapes blasted his 325 footer into rightfield.

Evers was the top Bengal hitter, collecting a double and two singles in four times at bat.

Chattanooga picked up its five runs on a walk followed by five straight singles and a double by outfielder Bruce Barmes.

14-13 Record

The loss was Detroit's first against minor league teams.

Going into the three game series with Cincinnati, Detroit has an over all exhibition record of 14 wins and 13 losses—three of the losses at the hands of the Reds during the Florida exhibition schedule.

The two teams play here today; at Dayton Saturday and wind up at Crosley field in Cincinnati Sunday.

Line score:

Detroit	000 003 000—3	8	0
Chattanooga	050 010 00x—6	12	0

NEW GLOVE

CHICAGO — (AP) — President Truman will have a new southpaw glove to wear when he tosses out the first ball in the Boston Red Sox-Washington Senators season baseball opener Tuesday.

A personal friend of Mr. Truman, Fred J. Bowman, president of a sporting goods company (Wilson), sent the special glove to the president in a mahogany chest with a sterling silver name plate.

Bowman served as an instrument sergeant during World War I under Mr. Truman, at that time a captain in the 37th Division.

FINANCIAL SUCCESS

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals are near the end of what financially appears to be a successful spring training season.

They've played to 114,830 persons in 30 games. Two games over the weekend with the St. Louis Browns here will complete the season.

TUNE-UP

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Robin Roberts, ace of the Philadelphia Phillies mound staff, was slated to pitch the Phillies' spring training road wind-up exhibition game today against the Baltimore Orioles.

Roberts' starting role is regarded as the big right-hander's tune-up for the opening day assignment against the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds. It is also the rubber game for the Phils who have won 15 and lost 15 this spring.

END OF TOUR

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics rested on their laurels today after a clean sweep of the club's last 12 spring training exhibition games—most against minor league opposition.

With the annual city series against the Phillies Saturday and Sunday the only thing between them and opening day, the A's wound up an exhibition tour yesterday by out-slugging Greensboro, N. C., 9-6.

CONTRACT MEETING

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Curt Simmons, who was given his unconditional release by the U. S. Army yesterday, is expected to meet with owner Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies today on the matter of a 1952 baseball contract.

"I plan to be in uniform Saturday," Simmons said, "when the Phils play an exhibition game with the Athletics. If things go right, I should be taking my regular turn in a couple of weeks."

The 22-year-old southpaw declined to discuss the terms he would set before Carpenter—except to say, "I don't expect any contract trouble."

Simmons' return to the Phils is expected to bolster the club's chances in the National League pennant race.

STILL WEAK

KANSAS CITY — (AP) — Pop-ups are getting popular again with the Cleveland Indians. Notoriously poor hitters last season, They're hitting .256 for the exhibition season—the same average they marked up at the close of 1951 .

Luke Easter, the team's slugger, hadn't hit safely in the last 16 times at bat, going into today's game with the Giants. In two days, he dropped from .268 to .238.

CITY SERIES

CHICAGO—(AP)—Weather permitting, the Chicago Cubs and White Sox will open their annual three-game city series today at Wrigley Field with the Bruins sending Turk Lown against Joe Dobson.

The weatherman promised a sunny sky but the temperature is not expected to push much above 40. The second game tomorrow is scheduled for the Sox home base, Comiskey Park, and Sunday's game at Wrigley Field.

The Cubs, who finiished the 1951 National League season in the cellar, have perked up this spring for a citrus league mark of 20-2

Snead Faces Golf Field

GREENSBORO, N. C. — (AP) — The $10,000 greater Greensboro Open, final event of the winter golf tour, got under way today with the usual allignment—Sam Snead against the field.

Masters Champion Snead won the inaugural Greensboro tournament 14 years ago and has added three more in the intervening years.

Thus, it's quite natural that the White Sulphur Spring, W. Va., coin collector finds himself as the man to beat here.

One 18-hole round will be played daily through Easter Monday over the 6630-yard Starmont Forest Country Club course, a par 71 layout, before tournament officials get around to handing out the $2,000 top money.

The field listed, in addition to top man Snead, six other players who finished in the first 10 in the recent Masters.

Tommy Bolt, Durham, N. C.; Doug Ford, Harrison, N. Y.; Jimmy Clark, Laguna Beach, Calif., Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y.; all tournament winners during the winter swing, were on the premises ready to challenge Snead.

Most prominent absentee was Jackie Burke, the Texan, who won four straight winter events, but is sitting this one out.

Easter Vigil Is Restored

Commemorating the resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ, solemn and impressive services are to be conducted in All Saints Catholic church Saturday night and Easter Sunday.

Beginning at 11 Saturday night the Easter Vigil will be held and will be followed at midnight by the Mass of the Resurrection. Restoration of the Easter Vigil to the night hours between Saturday night and Easter Sunday morning comes through a decree promulgated in Lent of 1951 by the Holy See. The vigil concludes with the first mass of Easter.

Of all the liturgical celebrations observed in the course of the church year, that of the Easter Vigil is the most solemn, beautiful and impressive. During the vigil there will be the blessing of the new fire, the Easter candle, Easter holy water and the Baptismal water. During the functions those attending will repeat the vows made at the time of heir baptism.

Holy communion will be served at the midnight mass must fast from food and drink from 10 on.

Masses on Easter day will be at 8 and 10.

Special music has been prepared by the student choir of the church for the high mass at 10. At this mass the following liturgical music is to be presented:

Vidi Aquam—Wilkens-Boruchchia.

Introit — Resurrexi—Seventh Psalm Tone.

Kyrie and Gloria from Missa Stella Matutina by Vito Carnevali.

Gradual—Haec Dies.

Sequence—Victimae Paschali—Vatican Graduale.

Credo—Mass of the Angels by Pietro Yon.

Offertory—Terra tremuit.

O Filii Et Filiae—Melody from Magnificat by Palestrina.

Sanctus and Benedictus—Missa Stella Matutina by Carnevali.

Agnus Dei—Missa Brevis, Montani.

Communion—Pascha nostrum immolatus.

Benediction:

Regina Coeli—Antonio-Lotti.

Tantum Ergo—Traditional Melody.

Recessional:

Christ The Lord Is Risen Today—Montani.

Students of the fifth and sixth grades will sing at the low mass at 8 and they will sing the following Easter hymns:

Christ The Lord Is Risen—Montani.

Regina Coeli — Chant—Solmesnes.

O Sacrum Convivium—Remondi.

Ye Sons and Daughters of the Lord—Palestrina.

Recessional:

Full of Glory, Full of Wonders—Faber-Montani.

Ceilings Extended To Seed Potatoes

DETROIT — (AP)—The Office of Price Stabilization has extended ceiling prices on white potatoes to include seed potatoes.

Sidney H. Woolner, deputy director of the Detroit district OPS office, said the new order prohibits retail food stores from selling white flesh seed potatoes at prices higher than ceiling prices for table stock potatoes. The order was effective yesterday.

Woolner said that seed potatoes had been exempted from price control but that this exemption had been abused by many retail stores. Some stores which previously had not handled seed potatoes are now reported selling large quantities of them as ordinary table stock potatoes, the OPS officer said.

Adjustment Period Needed By Students

PITTSBURGH— (AP) —A pretty exchange student from the free University of Berlin and now a doctoral candidate at Carnegie Tech says German youths have not had time to adjust themselves from war to peace and then to rearmament.

Blue-eyed Irene V. Reitzenstein thinks some of the confusion in the minds of German youth could be alleviated if the university could afford more cultural programs. This would give the students the spiritual strength needed.

Many of the students, she says, are refugees from the Soviet zone of Berlin where no Western papers are permitted and the radio stations are policed. Most refugees and west Germans can't afford to go to school.

Neighborhood Club Has Br iler Lesson

"Oven and Broiler Meals" was the subject of a lesson given the Neighborhood Home Ec club Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clarin Frederickson in the Buckeye addition by the leaders, Mrs. Frederickson and Mrs. August Pickard.

A delicious broiled dinner was served at 5 to illustrate the lesson.

"Curtains and Drapes" will be the subject of the next lesson and the leaders are to be Mrs. Frederickson and Mrs. Rogner Kallerson.

Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. Joe Moreau attended the leaders meeting to discuss topics on the program for the current year.

Elaborate Rites Are Arranged

An elaborate service to mark Easter Sunday has been prepared by the First Baptist church.

At 10:30 the Sunday school is presenting an Easter program, details of which appeared in yesterday's Press.

An Easter service is to be conducted at 11:15 at which time the Rev. K. J. Samuelson, pastor, will preach on "The Empty Tomb".

Pilgrims Crowd Into Jerusalem

(By The Associated Press)

Christians throughout the world today commemorated the most solem event of Holy Week — Christ's death on the cross.

Christian Pilgrims in the greatest numbers since the Holy Land war jammed Jerusalem. Jews and Arabs relaxed somewhat their barbed wire barriers separating the old and new cities to allow the Pilgrims to visit the shrines marking Christ's last days.

The Pilgrims retracted his torturous journey along the cobbled Via Dolorosa to Calvary. On Sunday the Roman Catholics will celebrate Easter at the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre, a service marked by the joyous ringing of many bells at the Resurrection. Many Protestants will attend an outdoor sunrise service Easter morning at St. Andrew's churchyard.

Good Friday devotional services were held in all churches of western Europe—Catholic and Protestant alike.

In London a three-hour service began at noon in Westminister Abbey. In Western Germany and elsewhere business places closed and government offices shut up for the weekend.

Thousands of Pilgrims from many parts of the world thronged St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City and Rome's more than 400 other churches where the Mass of the Presanctified Host was celebrated.

Trenary Lions Club Sponsors New Unit At Chatham

TRENARY — An organization meeting of the Chatham Lions club, sponsored by the Trenary club, was held Wednesday evening and Onni Pantti was elected president of the new group.

Other officers are: Bernard Kallio, 1st vice president; Neil Ylitalo, 2nd vice president; Earl Latvala, 3d vice president; Arthur Wolcott, secretary; George Lelvis, treasurer; Carl Zeno, Lion tamer; Bob Smith, tail twister; Reino Akkala, Tom Moore, Felix Kamppinen and Walter Erickson, trustees.

Guest speakers were Angus Nault, district governor, and Edward Lofgren, international director, both of Newberry, and Ralph Sheehan of Marquette.

The new club will meet the first and third Tuesdays of the month. Charter Night will be held in May at the Veterans Memorial Auditorium.

Michigan Wheat Crop 36,675,000 Bushels By Federal Estimate

WASHINGTON— (AP) —Michigan farmers will contribute 36,675,000 bushels to the nation's 946,845,000 bushel winter wheat crop this year.

This is according to an agriculture department forecast released here yesterday.

The department said also that the total figure is 28,845,000 bushels more than the 918,000,000 bushels forecast for the nation's winter wheat crop last December, when it had been planted.

Last year the winter wheat crop totalled 645,469,000 bushels and over the ten year period from 1941 to 1950 the crop averaged 199,469,000 bushels.

No forecast was given for the spring wheat crop.

Wheat stocks on Michigan farms on April 1 last year and this year, respectively, totalled 5,637,000 and 4,004,000 bushels.

Michigan farmers had on hand 26,748,000 bushels of corn on April 1, 1951 and 29,812,000 bushels for the same date this year.

Price Of Cadillac Reduced By $31.12

WASHINGTON — (AP) — If you'd like to buy a Cadillac, here's some good news—they're going to be $31.12 cheaper at wholesale.

General Motors Corp. yesterday told the Office of Price Stabilization it wants to cut Cadillac's factory price by that amount. OPS said it would issue new lower basic retail ceilings probably early next week.

The lowest-priced Cadillac sport coupe now costs $2,895 and the line goes up to $5,205 for a seven passenger imperial sedan. That doesn't count transportation, taxes, special equipment or delivery charges.

GM said it is making the $31.12 cut because it has reduced the amount of steel used in Cadillacs by $11.52 and it made a $19.60 mistake in figuring its new ceilings recently.

Former Iron Mountain Editor Dies In Detroit

DETROIT—(AP)—Harold V. Wilcox, former assistant city editor of the Detroit News, died today of a long illness which culminated in an emergency operation. He was 60.

Before joining the News, where he spent 30 years as an editor and writer, Wilcox worked on newspapers in Iron Mountain, Mich., and Gulfport, Miss., and for the Detroit Free Press and Detroit Times.

He was promoted to the News city desk in 1925 and became chief assistant city editor in 1934. Illness forced his return to the rewrite desk three years ago.

Wilcox was a veteran of World War I.

New Type Minesweeper Built At Manitowoc

GREAT LAKES, Ill. — (AP) — A new type of minesweeper, representing the Navy's first attempt to build a completely non-magnetic hull, will be launched at Manitowoc, Wis., April 17.

The hull, named the U. S. S. Dotterel, will be the first Navy ship launched on the Great Lakes since World War Two.

It will become an auxiliary motor minesweeper.

The Dotterel, built of Virginia white oak and Oregon fir by the Burger Boat Co., of Manitowoc, has been constructed throughout of materials with the lowest possible magnetic attraction.

Hull fastenings, struts, bolts, even hatches, are of silicon bronze, monel metal or stainless steel. Even the anchor is of bronze. The anchor chain is of monel metal.

The effort to eliminate magnetic fittings is to attain the greatest possible safety factor when the vessel is sweeping for magnetic mines.

Seven shipyards across the country are building the first flight of the new class, the Navy said today. The first in the class, called the AMS 60 class, was the U. S. S. Bittern, launched in January at Booth Bay Harbor, Me. The Dotterel will be the second in the class to be launched.

The vessel is 138 feet long, 27 feet wide at the beam, and will displace 375 tons.

Sponsor for the Dotterel will be Mrs. Francis P. Old, whose husband, Rear Adm. Old, is commandant of the Ninth Naval District. Mrs. Old will christen the Dotterel at launching ceremonies at 2:30 p. m.

Wearied Lansing Lawmakers Near Balanced Budget

two taxation bills and present the governor with the full $29,000,000 package.

These two are the $12,000,000 used car use tax and a $6,000,000 revision of the intangibles tax. The latter raises the rate half a mill and takes $1,500,000 in revenues away from local governments.

The House and Senate already have passed a $10,000,000 boost in the corporation franchise tax and a $1,000,000 bill putting national banks and mutual insurance companies under the intangibles tax.

A $330,500,000 budget would compare with this year's $311,000,000 and the $354,000,000 asked by Governor Williams.

Pared To Bone

It is a budget pared to the bone, with about 10 per cent added for rising material prices and enough money to cover much of the Civil Service pay raises granted state employes. But agency heads must spread it over 15 months to absorb the pay raises in the last part of this year.

The budget will cost some state employes their jobs if enough vacancies don't materialize naturally to absorb the shortage of pay cash. Estimates of the dismissals ranged from 300 or 400 to 5,000—the latter a Democratic guess.

The Senate abandoned its campaign to eliminate all public relations employes from the state payroll, settling instead, for a committee to investigate state publicity expenditures and recommend cuts to the next Legislature.

Early Primary Approved

The House balked at the Senate plan to cut out $300,000 to $500,000 in public relations expenditures, asserting it cut good as well as bad programs.

Another conference committee settled on the Senate plan to hold the fall primary Aug. 5 instead of the traditional Sept. 9 date. This would require nominating petitions to be filed by June 17, county political conventions to be held between Aug. 10 and 14 and the state convention by Aug. 16.

All but 18 of the 38 bills in conference had been settled by committees when members dragged themselves off to bed last night, but each must run the gantlet of each House today.

Big Pan American Plane Sinks With 69 Persons Aboard

NEW YORK — (AP) — A Pan-American Airways plane with 69 persons aboard crashed into the San Juan, Puerto Rico, harbor today and sank.

Pan-American said the plane, Tourist Flight 526A, carried 58 adult passengers, six infants and a crew of five.

The line said it "ditched and sank" five miles northwest of the entrance to the harbor at 11:02 a. m., EST.

There was no immediate information as to survivors.

The line said a coast guard PBY amphibian rescue plane was on the water at the scene of the sinking, three other planes were hovering over the scene and Coast Guard boats were on their way.

The plane was in command of Capt. John C. Burns, the husband of Jane Froman, radio and movie star.

Battle Rages For Control Of La Paz, Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia — (AP)—Loyal army troops and rebels still battled for possession of La Paz today, the third day of a revolution which erupted at dawn Wednesday.

(This dispatch, filed at 12:57 p. m. Bolivian time, was the first from La Paz since communications were blacked out Wednesday night.)

Rebel forces led by Brig. Gen. Antoni Seleme were in control of most of the city. Only small groups of Loyal troops were fighting in the capital.

It was reported that leaders of the opposing forces were trying to negotiate a settlement so as to avert further loss of life.

A large but unstated number of persons have been killed.

Uncle Mike Observes 110th Birthday At Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis.—(AP)—"Uncle Mike" O'Connor is 110 today and he isn't quite the man he used to be.

No more daily trips downtown to sell his home-made leather belts and suspenders the way he did when he was 100. No more swinging Indian clubs and taking ice-cold showers the way he did at 105. And no more walking from one wing of the Wood County infirmary to the other as he did at 109.

Today he's content to be able to walk from his bed to his chair and back, with the aid of a cane.

Uncle Mike, who has lived at the infirmary for the last two decades, was born in Montreal, Canada. Records at Traverse City, Mich., show that he gave his age as 37 when he married Nellie Frank there in 1889. His wife died 45 years ago and whereabouts of his two sons are unknown.

His sight has dimmed but his disposition is as bright as ever. His birthday statement, delivered with a grin, was "I'm always happy."

date of his release, some of his supporters anticipate that he may be able to return to the United States somewhat earlier—provided his successor is ready to take over sooner.

Lovett, in a letter dated April 10, wrote Eisenhower he was taking appropriate action "to secure your release from assignment as Supreme Commander, Allied Powers, Europe, effective 1 June, and to have you placed on inactive status upon your return to the United States.

In his letter, Eisenhower made no reference to the fact that he has agreed to accept the Republican nomination for President if it should be tendered him.

The letter simply said:

"I request that you initiate appropriate action to secure my release from assignment as Supreme Commander, Allied Powers Europe, by approximately June 1st, and that I be placed on inactive status upon my return to the United States. A relief date fixed this far in advance should provide ample time for the appointment of a successor and for any preparation and counsel that he may desire from me."

Truman Violated His Oath Of Office, Says Michigan Candidate

VERNON, Mich. — (AP)—Auditor General John B. Martin, Jr., today accused President Truman of violating his oath of office by seizing steel plants.

Martin, a candidate for the Republican nomination as U. S. Senator, spoke to the board of trade here.

"There is no basic law for this arbitrary and unwarranted act," Martin said. "If the President can do such a thing in one industry, he can do it in all in the name of a national emergency."

He denied the President's claim he had such power under the constitution and charged that such seizure of illegal powers could lead to dictatorship

Detroit Hit-And-Run Driver Returns To Look At His Victim

DETROIT—(AP)— Police today hunted a callous hit-run driver who stopped to look at his victim before driving away.

Two boy hitch - hikers were terrified passengers in the "souped up" car which struck and killed 61-year-old Hugh Harris Jose last night.

The two, Charles Parker, 14, and Alan Lackiere, 13, said the driver stopped a block beyond the accident and ran back to look at Jose, an employe of the Jam Handy Movie organization.

The boys said they jumped out when the car stopped. They said the driver hurried back to the auto and hastily drove away.

During a recent six-month period, North American readers bought 57 million copies of newspapers every day says the National Geographic Society.

Michigan Bell Agreement Sets Peace Pattern

two teams of negotiators prepared to go into a joint meeting. Settlemen followed a 24-hour period during which federal and state mediators hustled back and forth between separate sessions of the company and the union.

Michigan Bell claimed the $4-$7 weekly increase represented an annual increase of more than $7,500,000 in salaries, and declared it would ask a rate increase from the state Public Service Commission "to meet this and other rising costs of doing business."

Get Raise Immediately

The union bitterly denied Bell's contention of the cost, estimating the increase of $3,800,000 a year.

The company said that some parts of the settlement would require special Wage Stabilization Board approval to be made effective. It said it would join the CWA in asking WSB approval.

Employes making under $53 a week will get a $3 raise immediately and another $1 if and when the WSB approves. Those in the $53-$73.99 bracket get $4, those between $74 and $79.99 get $5, those between $80 and $88.99 get $6, and those over $89 get $7.

THOSE IN UNIFORM

Harold L. Gamache, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gamache, 1314 Minnesota Ave., Gladstone, is currently serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Essex as a member of Carrier Air Group Five, the first Navy air group to fly against the North Koreans.

The group recently stopped at Hawaii on their way home to San Diego after nine months in Korean waters on their latest tour of action in the Far East.

Two Would-Be Suicide Jumpers Rescued By New York Policemen

NEW YORK—(AP)—"I have too much trouble with the landlord I can't stay any longer."

That was the reason given by Chinatown restaurant worker Yim Nin, 43, for wanting to leap 10 stories to his death.

"I'm sick of life," said Max Gurspan, 55-year-old barber, who teetered on a third-floor ledge in Brooklyn.

Both men were rescued yesterday, in the following ways:

A crowd watched while Yim Nin dangled his feet over the roof edge of the health department building in downtown Manhattan.

Patrolman James Brown, dressed in plainclothes, pulled out a camera and offered to take Nin's picture. As Nin posed, another patrolman grabbed him.

Gurspan was preparing to jump from a police station, where he had been taken for questioning after ripping a bus seat cushion with a pen knife.

As police and a crowd pleaded with Gurspan not to jump, a rescue net was placed beneath him. Efforts to seize him failed and Gurspan jumped—into the net.

Holy Week Accidents Kill 53 In Mexico

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— Mexico's Holy Week toll of traffic accident dead stood at 53 persons today, with another 70 seriously injured.

In one of the worst crashes reported so far, brakes failed on a bus loaded with holidaying government employes and it left the highway, crashed and burned within sight of the Pacific resort harbor of Acapulco. Twenty-two persons were killed and 10 seriously burned.

In another major accident, a truckload of farmers and their families on a religious pilgrimage in Vera Cruz state overturned three days ago, killing 22 and injuring 18.

Holy week is the year's big travel season for Mexican families. Thousands have been leaving the capital since last weekend for extended holidays.

Worst Missouri Flood Menaces Downstream Area

kota, Minnesota and Montana.

Damages from the over flows mounted into the millions of dollars.

At South Sioux City, Neb., the Red Cross also reported:

Sioux City, Ia., readied plans to care for one thousand families expected to be driven out when the crest hits there about Monday.

The downstate cities of Omaha, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Ia., girded against a predicted crest of 28.5 feet, some six feet above that which brought havoc in the last great flood of 1943.

If the forecast holds true, Missouri water will climb two feet higher there than the protecting dikes erected after that most recent disaster.

Minneapolis Hit

The Red Cross had mobile power units and canteens en route to all the threatened areas. One such unit was in service at Fort Pierre after the water knocked out the main power plant.

The Minnesota River, at flood stage along its 100 mile course from New Ulm to Minneapolis, drove out scores of farm families last night. Crews at Mankato, where the river caused a disasterous flood last spring, labored to bolster protective dikes.

A score of families were driven from homes in Minneapolis and St. Paul when the Mississippi started to rise. It is expected to hit 18.5 feet, 30 inches over the flood stage, this weekend.
